Grand Illusions, and The Power To Choose Anonymous Author, 2010-11-09 Who Am I Why Am I Here What Is Reality Really All About Throughout mankind's history our perceptive reality has led us to question who what and why we are here What is this universe we perceive around us These questions have been the driving force of our survival and have contributed to the evolution and proliferation of man's existence While there have been many disciplines of thought which have attempted to answer these questions the truth seems to elude us thereby indicating a lack of satisfactory answers from all our religions philosophies mythologies and sciences Ironically we do in fact have enough knowledge experience and information to discover define and comprehend the true nature of our existence as well as our individual roles in it To realize this requires the willingness to see things at their most basic level and recognize that what we find there provides us the evidence to understand the foundation of all that exists For thousands of years theologians philosophers and scientists have monopolized the question of what is reality Now it's a topic for the rest of us Anyone sufficiently motivated to ask themselves questions such as Who am I Why am I here What is this existence really all about already has the inherent ability and the direct evidence to find the answers It is often said that truth can be stranger than fiction No where is this more true than in the pages of this eBook A Perfect Dwelling Place Janice Reed Cobb, 2011-10-31 A woman reunites with her mother

Mabel through a dream The dream takes the daughter to heaven where she and Mabel spend time together reviewing vignettes from Mabel's childhood in the fictitious town of Shoal Crossing Alabama in 1918 Mabel shares visually dramatic scenes that arise around her family in a time of war rampant diseases racial tensions and economic hardship In spite of all the tribulations in her childhood Mabel graphically demonstrates the strengths and weaknesses of those who most influence her early in life Josie a black woman who is a family friend and domestic worker encompasses all the good Mabel sees as a child Though Josie suffers from the ravages of prejudice and the resulting scars of strife she tenderly guides Mabels thinking through sharing her relationship with God She honestly talks to Mabel about heaven her childhood memories slavery the Klan and freedom Josie has a special reasoning ability that poignantly teaches Mabel tolerance for and acceptance of life as they must live it in the rural South of 1918 Mabel and her daughter discover how ones circle of influence from childhood affects who they become as adults
