The Copernican Plan Restructuring The American High School:

The Copernican Plan Joseph M Carroll,1989-09-01 Future Survey Annual 1991 Michael Marien,1991-01-01 IJER Vol 9-N2 International Journal of Educational Reform,2000-04-01 The mission of the International Journal of Educational Reform IJER is to keep readers up to date with worldwide developments in education reform by providing scholarly information and practical analysis from recognized international authorities As the only peer reviewed scholarly publication that combines authors voices without regard for the political affiliations perspectives or research methodologies IJER provides readers with a balanced view of all sides of the political and educational mainstream To this end IJER includes but is not limited to inquiry based and opinion pieces on developments in such areas as policy administration curriculum instruction law and research IJER should thus be of interest to professional educators with decision making roles and policymakers at all levels turn since it provides a broad based conversation between and among policymakers practitioners and academicians about reform goals objectives and methods for success throughout the world Readers can call on IJER to learn from an international group of reform implementers by discovering what they can do that has actually worked IJER can also help readers to understand the pitfalls of current reforms in order to avoid making similar mistakes Finally it is the mission of IJER to help readers to learn about key issues in school reform from movers and shakers who help to study and shape the power base directing educational reform in the U S and the world Questions & Answers About Block Scheduling John Brucato,2014-04-11 For administrators and others involved in the transition to block schedules this book provides answers to the complex and challenging questions raised by the curious and the skeptical It demonstrates how to overcome obstacles to systemic school improvements The Effect of Restructuring from a Traditional Schedule to an Alternating-day Intensive Block Schedule on Middle Level Classroom Instructional Practices Trevor Roger Johnson,2002 International Journal of Educational Reform ,2000 Effects of High School Restructuring Gordon Cawelti,1997 Block Scheduling Model Marcia Ziegler,1998 School Restructuring Dawn Marie Barnes Hamel,1998 Moving to the Block Douglas S. Fleming,1997 An Investigation of Block Scheduling in High School String Ensembles Kathlene J. Goodrich,2001 The Innovative School Shlomo Sharan,Hanna Shachar,Tamar Levine,1999-03-30 Schools are described as social systems whose primary organizational features are closely interrelated Methods for coordinating these features are presented so schools can restructure their bureaucratic orientation The interrelated nature of a school s various subsystems is highlighted to point out how they can be coordinated so genuine restructuring can be achieved and maintained Each model of organization in a school bureaucratic systems and communal displays its own distinguishing characteristics and each one governs different aspects of people s behavior in schools The decisive questions are which behavioral patterns of the people in the school will be governed by each model and what will be the relative extent to which each model influences the nature of the relationships and educational processes in the school

Restructured schools emphasize the systems and communal models in their organizational and instructional norms with bureaucratic norms mainly governing routine administrative procedures while in traditional schools the bureaucratic model yields decisive influence on curricular structure classroom teaching models and staff relations as well as on administrative features of the school This book spells out a systems and communal approach to organization curriculum and instruction It describes how to adopt an investigative approach to learning often with cooperative groups of students coupled with a trans disciplinary approach to curricular structure and with a restructured schedule of classes to allow for in depth study of broad intellectual domains Prentice Hall American History Block Scheduling Support James West Davidson, Michael D. Rettig, 1996 Resources to help students link main ideas in American history to other disciplines A Study of High School Schedules and Standardized Testing Performance Robert H. Stranger, 2004 The Principal Gerald C. Ubben, Larry W. Hughes, 1992 This book provides a bridge from learning the theory of school administration to the practical problem solving in which school principals and other leaders engage This book continues to be based on the research indicating linkages between educational leadership and productive schools especially in terms of outcomes for children It supports the understanding that formal leadership in schools is a complex multi faceted task that requires continual learning and that effective school leaders must be strong educators focused on the central issues of learning teaching and school improvement School leaders must also be moral agents and social advocates for the children and communities they serve while working with community stakeholders to create learning communities that value and care for others as individuals and as members of the educational community For those aspiring to become principals or hold leadership positions Error Free Mental Measurements Robert M. Hashway, 1998 A useful and theoretical guide to taking accurate mental measurements The Instrumentalist , 1996 Educational Research Quarterly , 2000 Block Scheduling and Its Impact on the School Library Media Center Marie Shaw, 1999-02-28 Shaw who has spearheaded the adoption of block scheduling in her school s library media center has prepared a complete guide for library media specialists contemplating or moving to block scheduling In preparing this guide she has incorporated the experiences of twelve secondary school libraries across the country that have also moved to block scheduling Step by step this guide walks the library media specialist through planning networking curriculum and instruction professional development technology and assessment Practical suggestions forms lesson plans and case studies of other media centers that have successfully adopted block scheduling will help the library media specialist to make the transition to the block Toward a Coherent Curriculum James A. Beane, 1995
