The Straight Path of the Spirit Richard Katz,1999-04-01 The inspiring story of one man s exploration of indigenous healing in a culture fighting to preserve its spiritual health A firsthand account of a little known healing tradition A dramatic story of self transformation by a well respected Harvard educated anthropologist In the late 1970s Richard Katz a clinical psychologist trained in anthropology spent two years living in a remote island community in Fiji hoping to record the practices of its healers At the foundation of their healing he discovered was the concept of the straight path a journey through life whose truth is revealed only to the extent that it is searched for with honesty and faith It is a way of healing that in its very essence is a way of living a path that emphasizes the spiritual dimensions of health and the relevance of these to the community But while interviewing healers at work Katz was drawn into an increasingly suspenseful drama Unexplained deaths rumors and suspicions and the intrusion of a zealous evangelist rocked the village and soon revealed to the author the dangerous alternative to the straight path the misuse of power that some call witchcraft The Straight Path of the Spirit is an engrossing story of indigenous healers and a dramatic account of cultures in collision Through the story of his own self transformation Katz reveals not only those aspects of life essential for the Fijians as they struggle to hold onto their identity but also what is of importance to all of us who seek to retain our humanity

The Postcolonial Aura Arif Dirlik,2018-02-20 The essays in this volume range from questions of cultural self representation in China to more general problems of reconceptualizing global relationships in response to contemporary changes Although the new era of global capitalism calls for the remapping of global relations such remapping must be informed both by a grasp of contemporary structures of economic political and cultural power and by memories of earlier radical visions of society Without these two conditions Arif Dirlik argues the current preoccupation with Eurocentrism ethnic diversity and multiculturalism distract from issues of power that dominate global relations and that find expression in murderous ethnic conflicts Dirlik offers multi historicalism which presupposes a historically grounded conception of cultural difference seeks in different histories alternative visions of human society and stresses divergent historical trajectories against a future colonized presently by an ideology of capital Arguing that the operations of capital have brought the question of the local to the fore he points to indigenism as a source of paradigms of social relations and relationships to nature to challenge the voracious developmentalism that undermines local welfare globally Educating for an Ecologically Sustainable Culture C.
