The Humanity Savers:

McClure's Magazine ,1920 The Humanity Savers James Christopher Hall,2004-10 Book Description The word liberal has a connotation about it that suggests that many who are labeled as such are crusaders for all that is rooted in concern for humanity that they actually care for the suffering the disadvantaged the oppressed It is the contention here that just the opposite is true that this is a myth instead And one that needs exposing Author Biography James Christopher Hall is a freelance writer who has put into words a long held belief that most liberals say what they say and do what they do not out of love or compassion for humanity or anyone but rather to act out their anger against authority figures only To make his case he presents his arguments in a style that is intended to be hopefully humorous not so politely sarcastic and somewhat philosophical And above all will find resonance with those whose doubts about humanity savers have paralleled his own
