The Ideal Home:

The Edwardian House Helen C. Long,1993 Illustrates how Edwardian houses were built how they were used and what they meant at the time The Nature of Home Lisa Knopp,2002-01-01 For Lisa Knopp homesickness is a literal sickness During a lengthy sojourn away from the Nebraska prairie she fell ill and only when she decided to return home did she recover Homesickness is the triggering event for this collection of essays concerned with nothing less than what it means to feel at home Knopp writes masterfully about ecology place and the values and beliefs that sustain the individual within an impersonal world She is passionate about her subject whether it be an endangered beetle in the salt marshes near Lincoln Nebraska a forgotten Nebraska inventor a museum muralist a paleontologist or Arbor Day as the misguided attempt of Eastern settlers to correct a perceived deficiency in the Great Plains landscape Here is a writer who has read widely and judiciously and for whom everything resonates within the intricately structured definition of home The Saturday Evening Post ,1913 Home Alison Blunt,Robyn Dowling,2022-05-30 Home articulates a critical geography of home in which home is understood as an emotive place and spatial imaginary that encompasses lived experiences of everyday domestic life alongside a wider and often contested sense of being and belonging in the world Engaging with the burgeoning cross disciplinary interest in home since the first edition was published this significantly revised and updated second edition contains new research boxes illustrations and contemporary examples throughout It also adds a new chapter on Home and the City that extends the scalar understanding of home to the urban The book develops the conceptual and methodological underpinnings of a critical geography of home drawing on key feminist postcolonial and housing thinkers as well as contemporary methodological currents in non representational thinking and performance The book s chapters consider the making and unmaking of home across the domestic scale house as home the urban city as home national nation as home and homemaking in relation to transnational migration and diaspora Each chapter includes illustrative examples from diverse geographical contexts and historical time periods Chapters also address some of the key cross cutting dimensions of home across these scales including digital connectivity art and performance more than human constructions of home and violence and dispossession The book ends with a research agenda for home in a world of COVID 19 The book provides an understanding of home that has three intersecting dimensions that material and imaginative geographies of home are closely intertwined that home power and identity are intimately linked and that geographies of home are multi scalar This framework the examples used to illustrate it and the intended audience of academics and students across the humanities and social sciences will together shape the field of home studies into the future Events Management Glenn Bowdin,Johnny Allen,Rob Harris,Ian McDonnell,William O'Toole,2012-05-23 Events Management is the must have introductory text providing a complete A Z of the principles and practices of planning managing and staging events The book introduces the concepts of event planning and management presents the study of events management within an academic environment discusses the key components for staging an event covering the whole process from creation to evaluation examines the events industry within its broader business context covering impacts and event tourism provides an effective guide for producers of events contains learning objectives and review questions to consolidate learning Each chapter features a real life case study to illustrate key concepts and place theory in a practical context as well as preparing students to tackle any challenges they may face in managing events Examples include the Beijing Olympic Games Google Zeitgeist Conference International Confex Edinburgh International Festival Ideal Home Show and Glastonbury Festival Carefully constructed to maximise learning the text provides the reader with a systematic guide to organizing successful events examining areas such as staging logistics marketing human resource management control and budgeting risk management impacts evaluation and reporting fully revised and updated content including new chapters on sustainable development and events perspectives on events and expanded content on marketing legal issues risk and health and safety management a companion website www.elsevierdirect.com 9781856178181 with additional materials and links to websites and other resources for both students and lecturers

Picturing home Hollie Price, 2021-02-09 Picturing home examines the depiction of domestic life in British feature films made and released in the 1940s It explores how pictorial representations of home onscreen in this period re imagined modes of address that had been used during the interwar years to promote ideas about domestic modernity Picturing home provides a close analysis of domestic life as constructed in eight films contextualising them in relation to a broader offscreen culture surrounding the suburban home including magazines advertisements furniture catalogues and displays at the Daily Mail Ideal Home Exhibition In doing so it offers a new reading of British 1940s films which demonstrates how they trod a delicate path balancing prewar and postwar traditional and modern private and public concerns

The Ideal House: a Series of Designs for Ideal Homes W. Rupert Davison, 1910 Tatler & Bystander, 1920 Cultural Ideals of Home Deborah Chambers, 2020-03-18 Spanning the nineteenth to twenty first centuries this book investigates how home is imagined staged and experienced in western culture Questions about meanings of home and domestic culture are triggered by dramatic changes in values and ideals about the dwellings we live in and the dwellings we desire or dread Deborah Chambers explores how home is idealised as a middle class haven managed as an investment and signified as a status symbol and expression of personal identity She addresses a range of public state commercial popular and expert discourses about home the heritage industry design exhibitions television social media home mobilities and migration smart technologies and ecological sustainability Drawing on cross disciplinary research including cultural history and cultural geography the book offers a distinctive media and cultural studies approach supported by original historically informed case studies on interior and domestic design exhibitions of model homes TV home interiors media home imaginaries multiscreen homes corporate visions of homes of tomorrow and digital smart homes A comprehensive and engaging study this book is ideal for students and researchers of cultural studies cultural history media and communication studies as well as sociology gender studies cultural geography and design studies Home and Community Sandra Costa Santos, Nadia Bertolino, Stephen Hicks, Camilla Lewis, Vanessa May, 2018-04-19 Examining the relationships between architecture home and community in the Claremont Court housing scheme in Edinburgh Home and Community provides a novel perspective on the enabling potential of architecture that encompasses physical spatial relational and temporal phenomena Based on the AHRC funded project Place and Belonging the chapters draw on innovative spatial layouts amid Scottish policymakers concerns of social change in the 1960s to develop theoretical understandings between architecture home and community By approaching the discourse on home and by positioning the home at the confluence of a network of sociocultural identities bound by spatial awareness and design the writers draw on sociological interpretations of cultural negotiation as well as theoretical underpinnings in architectural design In so doing they suggest a reinterpretation of the facilitating role of architecture as sensitive to physical and socio cultural reconstruction Drawn from interviews with residents architectural surveys contextual mapping and other visual methods Home and Community explores home as a construct that is enmeshed with the architectural affordances that the housing scheme represents that is useful to both architecture and sociology students as well as practitioners and urban planners
