Tenney, 2010-08-10 Revised edition Volume 1 of 5 The Zondervan Encyclopedia of the Bible has been a classic Bible study resource for more than thirty years Now thoroughly revised this new five volume edition provides up to date entries based on the latest scholarship Beautiful full color pictures supplement the text which includes many new articles in addition to thorough updates and improvements of existing topics Different viewpoints of scholarship permit a well rounded perspective on significant issues relating to doctrines themes and biblical interpretation The goal remains the same to provide pastors teachers students and devoted Bible readers with a comprehensive and reliable library of information More than 5 000 pages of vital information on Bible lands and people More than 7 500 articles alphabetically arranged for easy reference Hundreds of colorful maps illustrations charts and graphs Scholarly articles ranging across the entire spectrum of theological and biblical topics backed by the most current body of archaeological research Over 250 contributors from around the world Introductions to each book of the Bible Bibliographies and helpful cross references Peaceful Peoples Bruce D. Bonta, 1993-12-01 Peaceful peoples are societies that have developed harmonious social structures which allow them to get along with each other and with outsiders without violence Most of these peoples foster a spirit of cooperation rather than competition promote sharing rather than glorifying greed and live in harmony with the earth as well as with other people Perhaps most importantly they believe that peacefulness is the defining characteristic of their humanity Some of the peoples included in the book are from the Western tradition such as the Amish Hutterites Mennonites Quakers and Tristan Islanders from South America the Piaroa from Africa the Fipa from South Asia the Paliyan Malapandaram and Nayaka from Southeast Asia the Semai Chewong and Buid and from Micronesia the Ifaluk This selected bibliography includes annotated references to books articles and other English language publications that provide significant information about a peaceful society The author has combed the literature of fields such as anthropology psychology sociology history and religious studies for appropriate works with a cutoff date of 1992 Scholars and peace activists who are interested in societies that foster peacefulness have difficulty finding references to the literature Numerous indexes and abstracts do not include subject headings such as peaceful peoples Furthermore indexing services often do not cover chapters in edited volumes an important part of this literature The book includes a very detailed name and subject index that provides access to the intriguing social psychological and cultural similarities and difference existing among the peoples Reference and Subscription Books Reviews , 1990 Resarun , 1996 Disasters and Accidents in

Manned Spaceflight Shayler David, 2000-05-17 Here Dave Shayler examines the hurdles faced by space crews as they prepare and embark on space missions Divided into six parts the text opens with the fateful tragic mission of the Challenger crew in 1986 This is followed by a review of the risks that accompany every space trip and the unique environment in which the space explorer lives and works The next four sections cover the four parts of any space flight training launch in flight and recovery and present major historical incidents in each case The final section looks at the next forty years beyond the Earth's atmosphere beginning with the International Space Station and moving on to the difficulties inherent in a manned exploration of Mars

The Facing Island Jan Bassett, 2002 The discovery of a wonderful primary source the five year correspondence from Wilson Tong of the New Zealand Expeditionary Force to Edith Harris at Phillip Island inspired the author to create this rich and unusual memoir written as she came to terms with a diagnosis of cancer As the author replies to the long dead soldier's letters links and parallels emerge between the young man living with the fear of death and the woman 80 years later facing her own death in middle age She reflects on her life particularly her childhood on Phillip Island her work and her own confrontation with mortality
