The National Union Catalog, Pre-1956 Imprints Library of Congress, American Library Association. Committee on Resources of American Libraries. National Union Catalog Subcommittee, 1970 Wisdom from Rome Serena Connolly, 2022-10-03 For about one thousand years the Distichs of Cato were the first Latin text of every student across Europe and latterly the New World Chaucer Cervantes and Shakespeare assumed their audiences knew them well and they almost certainly did Yet most Classicists today have either never heard of them or mistakenly attribute them to Cato the Elder The Distichs are a collection of approximately 150 two line maxims in hexameters that offer instructions about or reflections on topics such as friendship money reputation justice and self control Wisdom from Rome argues that Classicists and others should read the Distichs they provide important insights into the ancient Roman literate masses conceptions of society and their views of relationships between the individual family community and state Newly dated to the first century CE they are an important addition and often corrective to more familiar contemporary texts that treat the same topics Moreover as the field of Classics increasingly acknowledges the intellectual importance of exploring the reception of Classical texts an introduction to one of the most widely read ancient texts for many centuries is timely and important
