The Internal Environment Of Dwellings:

The Internal Environment of Dwellings Rudolph Maximilian Eugen Diamant, 1971 Housing and Planning References, 1970 Global Dwelling K. Hadjri, L. Madrazo, I.O. Durosaiye, 2020-05-12 A selection of papers from the proceedings of the Third OIKONET Conference is contained in this book OIKONET is a European project co funded by the Education Audiovisual and Culture Executive Agency EACEA with the purpose of studying contemporary housing from a multidisciplinary and global perspective by encompassing the multiple dimensions which condition the forms of dwelling in today's societies architectural urban environmental economic cultural and social Following on from the first two OIKONET conferences held respectively in Barcelona Spain in 2014 and Bratislava Slovakia in 2015 the third conference took place in Manchester the UK in 2016 Providing a valuable resource for students lecturers researchers and others with an interest in housing studies the papers included in this book cover three themes namely sustainability of housing environments innovation in housing design and planning and participation in housing design and construction Private Dwelling Peter King, 2004 Housing is something that is deeply personal to us It offers us privacy and security and allows us to be intimate with those we are close to This book considers the nature of privacy but also how we choose to share our dwelling The book discusses the manner in which we talk about our housing how it manifests and assuages our anxieties and desires and how it helps us come to terms with loss Private Dwelling offers a deeply original take on housing The book proceeds through a series of speculations using philosophical analysis and critique personal anecdote film criticism social and cultural theory and policy analysis to unpick the subjective nature of housing as a personal place where we can be sure of ourselves The Climatic Dwelling Eoin O. Cofaigh, John A. Olley, J. Owen Lewis, 1996 In Keeping The Lights On Walt Patterson starts from a simple premise that we are making a mess of energy and this is endangering the planet Using accessible everyday language Patterson describes how we could do much better outlining a different way Houses and Domestic Space in Seventeenth and Eighteenth Century Hospitaller Malta George A. Said-Zammit, 2020-12-29 Houses and Domestic Space in Seventeenth and Eighteenth Century Hospitaller Malta is a study concerned with a wide spectrum of early modern dwellings in Malta ranging from palazzi and affluent residences to peasant dwellings troglodyte houses and hovels The multifaceted approach adopted in this book allows houses and domestic networks to be studied not only in terms of architecture and construction materials but also as places of human habitation where house dwellers act react and interact in different contexts and circumstances Dwellings are places that permit different social and economic activities whilst providing shelter and security to the household members Through the available sources the houses of Hospitaller Malta are analysed in terms of their spatial properties and how they generate privacy interaction and communication identity accessibility security visibility movement and encounters and equally important how domestic space relates to gender roles status and class This work therefore seeks to reach a deep and nuanced understanding of domestic space and how it relates to the islands history and the development of their society during the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries

Nanotechnology in Construction

Peter J M Bartos, John J Hughes, Pavel Trtik, Wenzhong Zhu, 2007-10-31 The importance of nanotechnology related research and development has become recognised worldwide Substantial public and private investment is now being ploughed into research and development in a number of industrial sectors where nanotechnology has become established and has led to new commercial products The construction industry having major economic significance with nano scale research and development which is only emerging offers a wide scope for exploitation of nanotechnology With international contributions from experts in the field Nanotechnology in Construction amalgamates previously fragmented research and emerging trends It reflects the inherent multi disciplinary nature of nano scale research in construction and contributions cover a wide spectrum from highly scientific investigations to futuristic applications The book is organised into four broad sections the first reviews and analyses the prospects of exploitation of nanotechnology in construction the second discusses novel tools and their capabilities the final two sections show existing significant products where nanotechnology has been already been exploited or where product development is under way Nanotechnology in Construction will appeal to researchers already working in this field as well as those wishing to enter it It will also inform governmental and other funding agencies of the most promising future directions and their related timescales Practical applications are considered and explanations of the underlying basics are given raising awareness and understanding of what nanotechnology can offer to construction professionals in general

Housing and Asthma Stirling Howieson, 2005-02-16 Asthma is on the rise in a number of countries in this volume Howieson asks what role the built environment has to play and what the construction industry can do to either slow the increase or reverse the trend Based on the findings of a six year research project this book considers all aspects of housing to develop new strategies for dealing with the asthma pandemic in Britain and beyond With the focus on the design and use pattern of our dwellings the book looks at tackling the problems inherent in existing housing as well as forging guiding principles for the design of new dwellings together with a financial assessment of the proposals

Courtyard Housing Brian Edwards, 2006 This book demonstrates through discussions on sustainability and regional identity and via a series of case studies that the courtyard housing form has a future as well as a past
