Sister Stew Juliet S. Kono, Cathy Song, 1991-01-01 The Columbia Guide to Asian American Literature Since 1945
Guiyou Huang, 2006-08-08 The Columbia Guide to Asian American Literature Since 1945 A Study Guide for Cathy Song's "Lost Sister" Gale, Cengage Learning, 2016 A Study Guide for Cathy Song's Lost Sister excerpted from Gale's acclaimed Poetry for Students This concise study guide includes plot summary character analysis author biography study questions historical context suggestions for further reading and much more For any literature project trust Poetry for Students for all of your research needs American Women Short Story Writers Julie Brown, 2014-05-01 This collection of original and classic essays examines the contributions that female authors have made to the short story The introductory chapter discusses why genre critics have ignored works by women and why feminist scholars have ignored the short story genre Subsequent chapters discuss early stories by such authors as Lydia Maria Child and Rose Terry Cooke Others are devoted to the influences race class sexual orientation education that have shaped women's short fiction through the years Women's special stylistic formal and thematic concerns are also discussed in this study The final essay addresses the ways our contemporary creative writing classes are stifling the voices of emerging young female authors The collection includes an extensive five part bibliography Asian American Poets Guiyou Huang, 2002-05-30 Even though Asian American literature is enjoying an impressive critical popularity attention has focused primarily on longer narrative forms such as the novel And despite the proliferation of a large number of poets of Asian descent in the 20th century Asian American poetry remains a neglected area of study Poetry as an elite genre has not reached the level of popularity of the novel or short story partly due to the difficulties of reading and interpreting poetic texts The lack of criticism on Asian American poetry speaks to the urgent need for scholarship in this area since perhaps more than any other genre poetry most forcefully captures the intense feelings and emotions that Asian Americans have experienced about themselves and their world This reference book overviews the tremendous cultural contributions of Asian American poets Included are alphabetically arranged entries on 48 American poets of Asian descent most of whom have been active during the latter half of the 20th century Each entry begins with a short biography which sometimes includes information drawn from personal interviews The entries then discuss the poet's major works and themes including such concerns as family racism sexism identity language and politics A survey of the poet's critical reception follows In many cases the existing criticism is scant and the entries offer new readings of neglected works The entries conclude with bibliographies of primary and secondary texts and the volume closes with a selected general bibliography The Columbia Guide to Asian American History Gary Y. Okihiro, 2005-03-30 Offering a rich and insightful road map of Asian American history as it has evolved over more than 200 years this book marks the first systematic attempt to take stock of this field of study It examines comments and questions the changing assumptions and contexts underlying the experiences and contributions of an incredibly diverse population of Americans Arriving and settling in this nation as early as the 1790s with American born generations stretching back more than a century Asian Americans have become an integral part of the American experience this cleverly organized book marks the trajectory of that journey offering researchers invaluable information and interpretation Part 1 offers a synoptic narrative history a chronology and a set of periodizations that reflect different ways of constructing the Asian American past Part 2 presents lucid discussions of historical debates such as interpreting the anti Chinese movement of the late 1800s and the underlying causes of Japanese American internment during World War II and such emerging themes as transnationalism and women and gender issues Part 3 contains a historiographical essay and a wide ranging compilation of book film and electronic resources for further study of core themes and groups including Chinese Japanese Filipino Hmong Indian Korean Vietnamese and others

The New Anthology of American Poetry Steven Gould Axelrod, Camille Roman, Thomas Travisano, 2012-04-15 Steven Gould Axelrod Camille Roman and Thomas Travisano continue the standard of excellence set in Volumes I and II of this extraordinary anthology Volume III provides the most compelling and wide ranging selection available of American poetry from 1950 to the present Its contents are just as diverse and multifaceted as America itself and invite readers to explore the world of poetry in the larger historical context of American culture Nearly three hundred poems allow readers to explore canonical works by such poets as Elizabeth Bishop Robert Lowell and Sylvia Plath as well as song lyrics from such popular musicians as Bob Dylan and Queen Latifah Because contemporary American culture transcends the borders of the continental United States the anthology also includes numerous transnational poets from Julia de Burgos to Derek Walcott Whether they are the works of oblique avant gardists like John Ashbery or direct populist poets like Allen Ginsberg all of the selections are accompanied by extensive introductions and footnotes making the great poetry of the period fully accessible to readers for the first time

New Poems from the Third Coast Michael Delp, Conrad Hilberry, Josie Kearns, 2000 An anthology that offers a sampling of the best poetry written by Michigan writers In 1976 Wayne State University Press published The Third Coast Contemporary Michigan Poetry an anthology that offered a sampling of the best poetry written by Michigan writers A second Third Coast anthology was published in 1988 with many new poets and a wider range of styles New Poems from the Third Coast continues that tradition with fifty six writers from across the state sharing their poetic glimpses of trout streams schoolrooms and restaurants as well as portraits of friends families lovers and life in Michigan Although this collection is only a sampling of the rich literary culture alive in Michigan New Poems from the Third Coast is a lively and carefully crafted collection of poems from a variety of Michigan voices Michael Delp Conrad Hilberry and Josie Kearns have balanced the old and the new and combined them in a strong contribution to contemporary poetry

Hāpai Nā Leo Bill Teter, 2010 From the powerful opening words of the Kumulipo to the propulsive rhymes of contemporary slam poetry Hapai na Leo celebrates a diverse range of voices that explore carry and regenerate Hawaiian culture Hapai na Leo is a literary companion to Malcolm Naea Chun s historical and philosophical works the Ka Wana series published by the Curriculum Research economic and social relationships identity and spirituality While these perspectives represent particular stories and places they remind us that people everywhere define themselves in ways large and small public and private individual and communal

Korean and Korean American Life Writing in Hawai'i Heui-Yung Park, 2015-12-16 Korean and Korean American Life Writing in Hawai'i examines such self-representing genres as lyric poems oral history autobiography and memoirs written by Korean and Korean Americans from the early twentieth century to the present in order to explore how these people have shaped their individual or collective identities Their representations produced in different periods by successive generations reveal how Koreans in their diaspora to Hawai'i came to terms with their ethnic and local selves and also how the sense of who and what they are changed over the years both within and beyond the initial generation Looking into their individual and collective identities in lyric poems oral history autobiography and memoirs reveals how the earliest arrivals their children and their grandchildren have come to terms with their national ethnic and local selves and how their sense of identity changes over the course of time both within and beyond the initial generation In the lyric poems found in Korean language periodicals of the native born generation we can trace the significance of the motherland and Hawai'i for these writers sense of identity The oral histories of first generation women most of whom arrived as picture brides also represent another often vulnerable Koreans who define themselves in relation to both the present culture and to Korean men The self developed by the second third and in between generation Koreans diversifies because their identity is not defined exclusively by their ancestral land extending to Hawai'i and to America This study focuses on three main areas of emphasis Hawai'i Korean language and culture and life writing By tracing how identity changes with each generation this study reveals how identity formation for Hawai'i diasporic Koreans has evolved

Re-Placing America Ruth Hsu, Cynthia G. Franklin, Suzanne Kosanke, 2000-01-01 This collection of essays and poems examines various recent literary texts and cultural arenas in North America and the Asia and Pacific regions for what they reveal of the ongoing struggles of indigenous people and people of colour for justice and autonomy

Reimagining the American Pacific Rob Wilson, 2000 Discusses the makings of the American Pacific locality location identity as space and ground of cultural production and the way this region can be linked to Asia and Pacific as well as to American mainland

Asian American Literature Keith Lawrence, 2021-08-25 Asian American Literature An Encyclopedia for Students is an invaluable resource for students curious to know more about Asian North American writers texts and the issues and drives that motivate their writing This volume collects in one place a breadth of information about Asian American literary and cultural history as well as the authors and texts that best define it A dozen contextual essays introduce fundamental elements or subcategories of Asian American literature expanding on social and literary concerns or tensions that are familiar and relevant Essays include the origins and development of the term Asian American overviews of Asian American and Asian Canadian social and literary histories essays on Asian American identity gender issues and sexuality and discussions of Asian American rhetoric and children's literature More than 120 alphabetical entries round out the volume and cover important Asian North American authors Historical information is presented in clear and engaging ways and author entries emphasize biographical or textual details that are significant to contemporary young adults Special attention has been given to pioneering authors from the late 19th century through the early 1970s and to influential or well known contemporary authors especially those likely to be studied in high school or university classrooms
