Stolen Harvest The Hijacking Of The Global Food Supply:

Stolen Harvest Vandana Shiva, 2016-01-14 For the farmer the seed is not merely the source of future plants and food it is a vehicle through which culture and history can be preserved and spread to future generations For centuries farmers have evolved crops and produced an incredible diversity of plants that provide life sustaining nutrition In India alone the ingenuity of farmers has produced over 200 000 varieties of rice many of which now line store shelves around the world This productive tradition however is under attack as globalized corporate regimes increasingly exploit intellectual property laws to annex these sustaining seeds and remove them from the public sphere In Stolen Harvest The Hijacking of the Global Food Supply Shiva explores the devastating effects of commercial agriculture and genetic engineering on the food we eat the farmers who grow it and the soil that sustains it This prescient critique and call to action covers some of the most pressing topics of this ongoing dialogue from the destruction of local food cultures and the privatization of plant life to unsustainable industrial fish farming and safety concerns about corporately engineered foods The preeminent agricultural activist and scientist of a generation Shiva implores the farmers and consumers of the world to make a united stand against the genetically modified crops and untenable farming practices that endanger the seeds and plants that give us life Sickness and Wealth Meredith P. Fort, Mary Anne Mercer, Oscar Gish, 2004 Demonstrates the impact of the widening wealth gap on the health and well being of the world s poor Feminist Epistemology and Philosophy of Science Heidi E.

Grasswick, 2011-05-16 Having enjoyed more than twenty years of development feminist epistemology and philosophy of science are now thriving fields of inquiry offering current scholars a rich tradition from which to draw In addition to a recognition of the power of knowledge itself and its effects on women s lives a central feature of feminist epistemology and philosophy of science has been the attention they draw to the role of power dynamics within knowledge seeking practices and the implications of these dynamics for our understandings of knowledge science and epistemology Feminist Epistemology and Philosophy of Science Power in Knowledge collects new works that address today s key challenges for a power sensitive feminist approach to questions of knowledge and scientific practice The essays build upon established work in feminist epistemology and philosophy of science offering new developments in the fields and representing the broad array of the feminist work now being done and the many ways in which feminists incorporate power dynamics into their analyses

Cross-Continental Agro-Food Chains Niels Fold, Bill Pritchard, 2005-04-25 Filling a gap in contemporary food and globalization scholarship this timely book for both academics and professionals presents recent case study research on the globalization of food systems and the impacts for communities around the world A Place-Based Perspective of Food in Society Kevin M. Fitzpatrick, Don Willis, 2015-08-18 This book provides an outstanding collection of interdisciplinary and international essays examining the food place relationship It explores such topics as the history of food and agriculture the globalization and localization of food and the role of place in defining the broader societal consequences of this ever
