

The background of the book cover features a romantic couple in a close embrace. The woman, with long brown hair and her eyes closed, is leaning her head against the man's cheek. The man, who has a short beard and is shirtless, is looking down at her. They are positioned in the upper half of the frame. Below them, the background transitions into a lush green forest with tall evergreen trees, which appears to be a misty or rainy day. The overall color palette is soft and natural, with greens and earthy tones.

Stolen Dreams 522:

The Stolen Dream John Devaney, 2019-07-04 The book examines a period when football underwent a seismic and ineradicable change brought about by the determination of the Victorian Football League to wrest control of the game's development and destiny from the various state controlling bodies and the Australian Football Council Whereas the VFL had initially been the first among equals it gradually assumed the role of the sole and undisputed guardian of the code The AFC once football's ostensible national controlling body became an irrelevance Instead of a national sport with a national remit we ended up with an expanded VFL with a majority of Victorian member clubs supplemented by a token sprinkling of teams from interstate Such teams were in most cases created from scratch and could in no way be said to derive directly from the states unique and distinctive football traditions and culture For some it was a brave new world but evolution does not inevitably entail improvement
