tackling the nature of economic life and how to study it comparatively the book includes six studies which reflect the author's ideas on revising traditional views of the hunter gatherer and so called primitive societies revealing them to be the original affluent society The book examines notions of production distribution and exchange in early communities and examines the link between economics and cultural and social factors It consists of a set of detailed and closely related studies of tribal economies of domestic production for livelihood and of the submission of domestic production to the material and political demands of society at large
