The Stone Images of Esie, Nigeria Phillips Stevens,1978 The Stone Images of Esie, Nigeria Phillips Stevens,1978 The Making of Museums in Nigeria Amanda H. Hellman,2023-10-16 In November 1927 Kenneth Crosthwaite Murray 1902 1972 left his family home in West Sussex England to develop the art program in the British colony of Nigeria As he traveled the country Murray saw the cultural practices and craft production of Nigerian visual material under threat and decided to collect these pieces in order to preserve understand and perhaps console during a period of great change Murray and a few of his colleagues including Edward H Duckworth Bernard E B Fagg and Ekpo Eyo and the antiquities department that they founded built seven museums before independence established export policies began calling for the return of cultural heritage and developed excavation protocol This book captures the life and legacy of Murray whose efforts helped foster an understanding of Nigerian art and culture and explores the tension that arose among the colonial government officers and Nigerians who sought to build these cultural institutions during the twilight years of the British Empire and the transition to a newly independent Nigeria Global Stone Arts Sanjay Desai,AI,2025-02-22 Global Stone Arts explores the rich history and cultural significance of stone carving across the world revealing how ancient civilizations used this medium to express their beliefs technological capabilities and artistic visions The book examines the enduring legacy of stone art from Paleolithic cave paintings to the monumental sculptures of ancient Egypt and Mesoamerica Understanding stone art provides insight into past societies as the methods used to shape and decorate stone reflect the ingenuity of past artisans and the resources available to them The book addresses the technological evolution of stone carving and the cultural symbolism embedded within these artistic creations Beginning with basic concepts of stone typology and archaeological analysis Global Stone Arts unfolds in three sections exploring the early development of stone carving the rise of complex sculptural traditions in ancient civilizations and the global proliferation of stone carving traditions Through archaeological discoveries the book highlights the diversity of styles techniques and cultural meanings associated with stone art in different parts of the world By analyzing stone carvings readers gain a deeper appreciation for cultural heritage and the interplay between technological innovation artistic creativity and cultural context The book emphasizes the importance of considering the social economic and environmental contexts in which stone art was created providing a comprehensive overview of this ancient practice African Gender Studies Oyeronke Oyewumi,2016-09-27 This is the first comprehensive reader that brings African experiences to bear on the ongoing global discussions of women gender and society Bringing together the essential writing on this topic from the last 25 years these essays discuss gender in Africa from a multi disciplinary perspective West African Journal of Archaeology ,2000 Community Archaeology and Heritage in Africa Peter R. Schmidt,Innocent Pikirayi,2016-06-17 This volume provides new insights into the distinctive contributions that community archaeology and heritage make to the decolonization of archaeological practice Using innovative approaches

the contributors explore important initiatives which have protected and revitalized local heritage initiatives that involved archaeologists as co producers rather than leaders These case studies underline the need completely reshape archaeological practice engaging local and indigenous communities in regular dialogue and recognizing their distinctive needs in order to break away from the top down power relationships that have previously characterized archaeology in Africa Community Archaeology and Heritage in Africa reflects a determined effort to change how archaeology is taught to future generations Through community based participatory approaches archaeologists and heritage professionals can benefit from shared resources and local knowledge and by sharing decision making with members of local communities archaeological inquiry can enhance their way of life ameliorate their human rights concerns and meet their daily needs to build better futures Exchanging traditional power structures for research design and implementation the examples outlined in this volume demonstrate the discipline s exciting capacity to move forward to achieve its potential as a broader more accessible and more inclusive field

THE AFRICAN IRON AGE P.L. SHINNIE,1971 Art and Risk in Ancient Yoruba Suzanne Preston Blier,2017-11-02 In this book Suzanne Preston Blier examines the intersection of art risk and creativity in early African arts from the Yoruba center of Ife and the striking ways that ancient Ife artworks inform society politics history and religion Yoruba art offers a unique lens into one of Africa s most important and least understood early civilizations one whose historic arts have long been of interest to local residents and Westerners alike because of their tour de force visual power and technical complexity Among the complementary subjects explored are questions of art making art viewing and aesthetics in the famed ancient Nigerian city state as well as the attendant risks and danger assumed by artists patrons and viewers alike in certain forms of subject matter and modes of portrayal including unique genres of body marking portraiture animal symbolism and regalia This volume celebrates art history and the shared passion and skill with which the remarkable artists of early Ife sought to define their past for generations of viewers

Material Explorations in African Archaeology Timothy Insoll,2015 Material Explorations in African Archaeology examines materiality in African archaeology by exploring concepts of material agency and material engagement and entanglement in relation to their manifest presence in persons animals objects substances and contexts of the African past
