Stones From A Glass House:

Early American Proverbs and Proverbial Phrases Bartlett Jere Whiting, 1977 p B J Whiting savors proverbial expressions and has devoted much of his lifetime to studying and collecting them no one knows more about British and American proverbs than he The present volume based upon writings in British North America from the earliest settlements to approximately 1820 complements his and Archer Taylor s Dictionary of American Proverbs and Proverbial Phrases 1820 1880 It differs from that work and from other standard collections however in that its sources are primarily not literary but instead workaday writings letters diaries histories travel books political pamphlets and the like The authors represent a wide cross section of the populace from scholars and statesmen to farmers shopkeepers sailors and hunters Mr Whiting has combed all the obvious sources and hundreds of out of the way publications of local journals and historical societies This body of material because it covers territory that has not been extracted and compiled in a scholarly way before can justly be said to be the most valuable of all those that Whiting has brought together according to Albert B Friedman What makes the work important is Whiting s authority a proverb or proverbial phrase is what BJW thinks is a proverb or proverbial phrase There is no objective operative definition of any value no divining rod his tact feel experience determine what s the real thing and what is spurious Trixy; or, 'Those who live in glass houses shouldn't throw stones'. Maggie Symington, 1885

When Your Mind Breaks the Spirit of Your Soul Angelica Rose, 2014-09-17 It all started when I was about fifteen years old I was playing for the Amateur Softball Association or Junior Olympic Softball I was a standout pitcher throwing the ball about sixty five miles an hour I loved softball it was my sport and it was my passion But something was taking over my body my brain and my soul I wasn't in control anymore I used to throw no hitters strike batters out and be proud of myself But a switch went off in my brain I was hearing voices they were telling me to do certain things I was paranoid and it affected my pitching My dad could no longer sit anywhere near where I was pitching because I could see his eyeballs Those eyeballs were following me and distracting me so he had to sit behind the outfield fence I could hear what the batters were thinking and I could hear what everyone in the stands were thinking It ruined my career The sad part about it was that nobody helped me How could they have helped me I never told anybody because I was so afraid Was this normal I sometimes think it started even earlier maybe even as young as six years old The voices and paranoia were so intense sometimes I just wanted to end my life Why did my parents not notice this Why didn't anybody notice this I kept it all to myself and dealt with it myself Dictionary of Proverbs George Latimer Apperson, 2006-05-10 This dictionary aims to help users to find the most appropriate word to use on a wide range of occasions It is designed in particular for students those writing reports letters and speeches and crossword solvers but is also useful as a general word reference Special features include an alphabetical A Z listing numbered senses for words with more than one meaning British and American variants and specially marked colloquial uses The Oxford Dictionary of Proverbs Jennifer Speake,2015 This unique and thoroughly revised collection contains over 1 100 of the most widely used proverbs in English drawing on the resources of the Oxford Languages team for the most up to date research Lively and compelling it is filled with favourites old and new with a strong emphasis on meanings of proverbs catalogued Publications of the Folk-Lore Foundation Vassar College. Folk-Lore Foundation,1925 Jamaica Proverbs Martha Warren Beckwith,1925 Memoirs of the American Folk-lore Society ,1928
