Surviving Jewel Mitri Raheb, Mark A. Lamport, 2022-05-24 The Christian church was born in the Middle East and grew there for centuries Its interaction with Islam turned Christianity in this once predominantly Christian region into a marginalized jewel surviving at great peril within a difficult even sometimes hostile political and religious climate Of course the story of Christianity over the last 1 300 years is not solely one of conflict marginalization and persecution but is also about accommodation interchange and cooperation This introductory book details the history of the church in its Middle Eastern birthplace through the past two thousand years It is a story described as a lost history by Philip Jenkins but it is here uncovered and placed on display For those with eyes to see the church of the Middle East is here revealed as a precious jewel still catching the light

Religious Diversity and Children's Literature Connie R. Green, Sandra Brenneman Oldendorf, 2011-05-01 This book is an invaluable resource for enabling teachers religious educators and families to learn about religious diversity themselves and to teach children about both their own religion as well as the beliefs of others The traditions featured include indigenous beliefs throughout the world Native American spirituality Hinduism Buddhism Judaism Christianity Orthodoxy Catholicism and Protestantism Islam Sikhism and other beliefs such as Bah Unitarian Universalism Humanism and Atheism Each chapter highlights a specific religion or spiritual tradition with a brief discussion about major beliefs misconceptions sacred texts and holy days or celebrations This summary of each tradition is followed by extensive annotated recommendations for children s and adolescent literature as well as suggested teaching strategies The recommended literature includes informational books traditional religious stories and fiction with religious themes Teachers religious educators and family members will find the literature from these genres to be invaluable tools for bridging the religious experience of the child with that of the global society in which they live
