Stories From The River:

A River Runs Through It and Other Stories, Twenty-fifth Anniversary Edition Norman Maclean, 2009-08-14 Just as Norman Maclean writes at the end of A River Runs through It that he is haunted by waters so have readers been haunted by his novella. A retired English professor who began writing fiction at the age of 70 Maclean produced what is now recognized as one of the classic American stories of the twentieth century. Originally published in 1976 A River Runs through It and Other Stories now celebrates its twenty fifth anniversary marked by this new edition that includes a foreword by Annie Proulx. Maclean grew up in the western Rocky Mountains in the first decades of the twentieth century. As a young man he worked many summers in logging camps and for the United States Forest Service. The two novellas and short story in this collection are based on his own experiences, the experiences of a young man who found that life was only a step from art in its structures and beauty. The beauty he found was in reality and so he leaves a careful record of what it was like to work in the woods when it was still a world of horse and hand and foot without power saws, cats or four wheel drives. Populated with drunks, loggers, card sharks and whores and set in the small towns and surrounding trout streams and mountains of western Montana, the stories concern themselves with the complexities of fly fishing, logging, fighting forest fires, playing cribbage and being a husband, a son and a father. By turns raunchy, poignant, caustic and elegiac, these are superb tales which express in Maclean's own words a little of the love I have for the earth as it goes by. A first offering from a 70 year old writer, the basis of a top grossing movie and the first original fiction published by the University of Chicago Press, A River Runs through It and Other Stories has sold more than a million copies. As Proulx writes in her foreword to this new edition: In 1990 Norman Maclean died in body but for hundreds of thousands of readers he will live as long as fish swim and books are made.

Stories of the Trade River Valley I, River Stories Delores Chamberlain, 2000 Dace Chamberlain was a man of the river. He taught his family how to survive and thrive on the river by learning its ways and respecting its power. These are the stories of the Chamberlain family who grew up on the lower Wisconsin River in the 1950s and 1960s. Kulathupuzha: River of Stories, River of Futures R ROBERT, 2025-10-04 This book presents a visionary framework for sustainable river based ecotourism along Kerala's Kulathupuzha River where nature heritage and livelihoods flow together in harmony. Part of the Kerala Tourism Vision Series, it outlines how a single river corridor can evolve into a global model for conservation driven, community led tourism. Drawing from environmental policy, landscape planning and cultural preservation, the book guides readers through zoning strategies, biodiversity safeguards, climate resilience measures and inclusive governance models that empower local communities. Each chapter blends practical planning insights with global best practices from Costa Rica's rainforest tourism to Kerala's own successful eco initiatives. Designed for students, researchers, policymakers, tourism planners and nature enthusiasts, this book bridges the gap between academic vision and actionable design. It illustrates how sustainable tourism can protect what is sacred, revive what is endangered and nurture what is shared, turning the

Kulathupuzha River into both a case study and a symbol of hope for India's ecological future River of Fire and Other

Strange Stories of the Great River Abbie Johnston Grosvenor, 1918 THERE is a river so long and wide that it is the pride of our continent a very Father of Waters It draws many other streams into its basin and forms the largest drainage system in the world In early days this Great River was almost unknown A few savages had paddled their skiffs upon it Curious tales were told about it Monsters guarded it Sorcerers lived in its caverns Mystic creatures both good and bad swam through its rapids After the New World was discovered some daring French explorers longing for adventure traveled into those wilds to see if they could find the hidden waterway of Indian romance One of them a bold trader of Canada in his scarlet coat and three cornered hat ventured into the farthest away channels Only one of his companions a boy came back with him to present the map he drew of the southern reaches of the mighty stream Next a gray frocked Belgian friar sandaled and shaven of crown set down on parchment the northern trend of the same river His goose quill wrote the name of his young oarsman who sang to appease their Indian captors as white men and red rode the waves together River Mist and Other Stories Doppo
