Stories Of Righteousneb:

The Story of Romans A. Katherine Grieb, 2002-09-30 A Katherine Grieb insightfully traces the argument of Paul's letter to the Romans and shows how it is grounded in the story of God's faithfulness to Israel. She draws together a number of crucial insights: the narrative character of Paul's thought, the apocalyptic message of his gospel, the depth of his engagement with Israel's Scripture, and the practical and political impact of his theology. She demonstrates the letter's relevance today and invites contemporary readers to locate their own stories within Paul's account of God's righteousness. Informed by recent Pauline scholarship, this book will be useful to scholars, students, and pastors. The Story of Romans A. Katherine

Halberstam, 2025-05-15 What can early Jewish courtroom narratives tell us about the capacity and limits of human justice By exploring how judges and the act of judging are depicted in these narratives Trial Stories in Jewish Antiquity Counternarratives of Justice challenges the prevailing notion both then and now of the ideal impartial judge As a work of intellectual history the book also contributes to contemporary debates about the role of legal decision making in shaping a just society Chaya T Halberstam shows that instead of modelling a system in which lofty inaccessible judges follow objective and rational rules ancient Jewish trial narratives depict a legal practice dependent upon the individual judge's personal relationships reactive emotions and impulse to care Drawing from affect theory and feminist legal thought Halberstam offers original readings of some of the most famous trials in ancient Jewish writings alongside minor case stories in Josephus and rabbinic literature She shows both the consistency of a counter tradition that sees legal practice as contingent upon relationship and emotion and the specific ways in which that perspective was manifest in changing times and contexts

Ninety Biblical Story Lessons for Adults Jim Roché, 2024-03-13 How would new untrained Christians kindly and humbly introduce God to their non Christian friends What if neither the Christian nor the non Christian could learn from printed materials such as pamphlets books or the Bible itself What if the new Christian was usually alone and untrained in a community hostile to Christian beliefs How could these new Christians continue the process of reproducing spiritual generations without first being fully taught themselves The strategy offered here is to tell biblical stories that can be easily retold Stories that revealed God's acts and perspectives leading to questions and discussion Stories that caused new listeners to question their own beliefs You're holding a collection of ninety stories designed to be retold by anyone thirty Old Testament stories chronologically arranged from creation to the return from Israel's exile thirty Gospel stories from the announcement of Jesus' birth to his ascension to heaven and thirty stories from the New Testament from Pentecost to Jesus' return from heaven to earth Each lesson is built upon the principles from Roche's first book Biblical Storytelling Design: Understanding Why Oral Stories Work but modeled and explained in this book

The True Self and False Self Matthew Brett Vaden, 2022-01-06 We go through life focusing our attention on many things But how much do we focus on ourselves We may be aware of many things but are we self-aware This is a question our contemporary culture asks us to consider more and more and words like self-awareness personal identity authenticity and mindfulness are becoming not just buzz words but virtues The ancient dictum know thyself reverberates in all corners of our lives from Disney characters on our TVs to DISC profiles at our workplaces Some of the more mindful members of our society may even be tempted to disdain those who are not as mindful as they are But what if our self-aware culture hailing us to pursue our true selves is unaware of itself What if our definitions of true and false self understanding are myopic slanted towards a narrow solipsism that is actually leading people away from authenticity while all the while championing it If so how would we know Who is best able to define these things and to teach us how to know ourselves truly Matthew Brett Vaden traces the wisdom of past and modern day sages to discover how we can truly discover ourselves
