Stories Of The Academy Learning From The Good Mother:

Stories of the Academy Mary Beth Spore, Marsha Dianne Harrison, Nelson L. Haggerson, 2002 Stories of the Academy looks at relationships between women entering the ranks of faculty in higher education and more experienced faculty. Occasionally these relationships are so mutually fulfilling that they lead to great satisfaction and personal reward and can be named Good Mother relationships. These relationships are deeper and more profoundly influential than traditional professional relationships for they involve a mythic or spiritual dimension. The archetype of the Good Mother provides a way to name and explicate these relationships. Using mythology and philosophy as guides to come to understand these relationships, the book first defines the myth of the Good Mother, demythologizes the myth, presents Good Mother stories told in conversational form, and ultimately searches for the mythic meaning in those stories. Written for anyone in the academy, this book also has broader implications for other professionals, particularly women. Ethnodrama Johnny

Saldaña, 2005-02-04 Ethnodrama: An Anthology of Reality Theatre contains seven carefully selected ethnodramas that best illustrate this emerging genre of arts-based research, a burgeoning but evident trend in the field of theatre production itself. In his introduction to ethnodrama and to the plays themselves, Saldaña emphasizes how a credible, vivid, and persuasive rendering of a research participant's story as a theatrical performance creates insights for both researcher and audience not possible through conventional qualitative data analysis. With their focus on the personal, immediate, and contextual, these plays about marginalized identities, abortion, street life, and oppression manage a unique balance between theoretical research and everyday realism. Broadening Critical Boundaries in Children's and Young Adult Literature and Culture

Amie A. Doughty, 2018-10-30 This collection of essays explores a wealth of topics in children's and young adult (YA) literature and culture. The contributions include an examination of the Watchbird cartoons by Munro Leaf and their attempts to teach morals and manners; an ethnographic study about the role of public youth librarians; and an exploration of the role popular video games can play in the secondary classroom. Other topics investigated here encompass the presentation of environmentalism in Hayao Miyazaki's films, psychological analyses, and the role of race, gender, and culture in children's and YA literature. Feminist Activism in Academia Ellen C. Mayock, Domnica Radulescu, 2010-09-07 The eleven essays making up this book unite scholars from various disciplines to explore how feminists live, survive, and thrive in academia. The pieces investigate innovative ways that women academics occupy the space of the Academy as real, living bodies while resisting being judged, devalued, or valued on the basis of their biological bodies. Specific themes include abortion rights activism, authority in the classroom, feminist mentoring, the role of women's studies programs, division of labor, and the role of theater and performance in enacting lasting change. Parenting and Professing Rachel Hile Bassett, 2005 Featuring many personal accounts, the twenty-four essays in this collection explore the challenges and possibilities confronting those, especially women, who combine parenting and academic work. Written by a diverse group of educators who present a real world variety of situations the collection also includes ideas for change at the individual interpersonal policy and system levels New Zealand Journal of Educational Studies ,2002 55th Yearbook of the National Reading Conference ,2006 Academy; a Weekly Review of Literature, Learning, Science and Art ,1869 The Poetical gazette the official organ of the Poetry society and a review of poetical affairs nos 4 7 issued as supplements to the Academy v 79 Oct 15 Nov 5 Dec 3 and 31 1910 Yearbook of the National Reading Conference National Reading Conference (U.S.),2006 Queen Mothers Rhonda Jeffries,2019-08-01 Black women s experiences functioning as mothers teachers and leaders are confounding and complex Queen Mothers from Ghanaian tradition are revered as the leaders of their matrilineal families and the teachers of the high chiefs M ller 2013 Stoeltje 1997 Conversely the influence of the British Queen Mother on Black women in the Americas translates as a powerless title of dis courtesy Characterized as a deviant figure by colonialists the Black Queen Mother s role as disruptive agent was created by White domination of Black life Masenya 2014 and this branding persists among contemporary perceptions of Black women who function as the mother teacher or leader figure in various spaces Nevertheless Black women as cultural anomalies were suitable to mother others for centuries in their roles as chattel and domestic servants in the United States Dill 2014 Lawson 2000 Lewis 1977 and Rodriguez 2016 provide explorations of the devaluation of Black women in roles of power with these effects wide ranging from economic and family security professional and business development healthcare maintenance political representation spiritual enlightenment and educational achievement This text interrogates contexts where Black women function as Queen Mothers and contests the trivialization of their manifold contributions The contributed chapters explore The myriad experiences of Black women mothering teaching and leading their children families and communities how spirituality has influenced the leadership styles of Black women as mothers and teachers and how Black women are uniquely positioned to mother teach and lead in personal and professional spaces
