Stories By The Sea:

Stories by English Authors, The Sea William Clark Russell, 2020-04-14 Excerpt from THE EXTRAORDINARY ADVENTURE OF A CHIEF MATE BY W CLARK RUSSELL In the newspapers of 1876 appeared the following extracts from the log of a merchantman VOLCANIC ISLAND IN THE NORTH ATLANTIC The ship Hercules of Liverpool lately arrived in the Mersey reports as follows March 23 in 2 deg 12 north latitude 33 deg 27 west longitude a shock of earthquake was felt and shortly afterward a mass of land was hove up at a distance of about two miles from the ship Michael Balfour the chief officer fell overboard A buoy was thrown to him the ship brought to the wind and a boat lowered within fifteen minutes of the occurrence But though the men sought the chief mate for some time nothing could be seen of him and it is supposed that he sank shortly after falling into the sea Masters of vessels are recommended to keep a sharp lookout in approaching the situation of the new island as given above No doubt it will be sighted by other ships and duly reported Stories of the Sea James Fenimore Cooper, 1868 Place by the Sea Zara Borthwick, 2011 Round the fire, 6 stories by the author of 'The day of a baby boy'. Elizabeth Sara Sheppard, 1856 Seascapes: Shaped by the Sea Mike Brown, Barbara Humberstone, 2016-04-01 Despite the fact that the sea covers 70 per cent of the Earth's surface and is integral to the workings of the world it has been largely neglected or perceived as marginal in modern consciousness This edited collection disrupts notions of the sea as other as foreign and featureless through specific situated accounts which highlight the centrality of the sea for the individuals concerned Bringing together academics who combine scholarly expertise with lived experiences on in and with the sea it examines humans relationships with the sea Through the use of auto ethnographic accounting the contributors reflect on how the sea has shaped their sense of identity belonging and connection They examine what it is to be engaged with the sea and narrate their lived sentient corporeal experiences The sea is a cultural seascape just as it is physical reality The sea shapes us and we in turn attempt to shape it as we construct various versions of it that reflect our on going and mutable relationship with it The use of embodied accounts as a way of conveying lived experiences and the integration of relevant theoretical frames for understanding the broader cultural implications provide new opportunities to understand seascapes The Sea-Wolf & Other Works (Set of 3 Bestseller Books by Jack London) The Red One/ The Son of The Wolf/ The Sea-Wolf Jack London, 2022-03-19 The Sea Wolf Other Works Set of 3 Bestseller Books by Jack London The Red One by Jack London In this thrilling adventure story Jack London takes readers to the remote island of Guadalcanal where a group of explorers encounters a mysterious and powerful red diamond As they become entangled in a web of greed and obsession the novel explores themes of human desire colonialism and the clash of cultures The Son of the Wolf by Jack London This collection of short stories is set in the rugged landscapes of the Yukon and Alaskan wilderness Jack London's tales of survival human animal conflict and the human spirit's indomitable will to endure against all odds are masterfully depicted in The Son of the Wolf The Sea Wolf by Jack London In this classic adventure novel the protagonist Humphrey Van Weyden finds himself on a sealing schooner captained by the brutal and enigmatic Wolf Larsen. The story explores themes of existentialism, morality, and the struggle for dominance between the strong and the weak. The Sea Wolf remains one of Jack London's most popular and enduring works. This set of three bestseller books by Jack London showcases the author's exceptional storytelling and his ability to capture the raw essence of human nature and the untamed wilderness in gripping narratives. The children's holidays, stories by Marianne Farningham Mary Anne Hearne, 1878

In battle and breeze, stories by G.A. Henty, G.M. Fenn and W.C. Russell George Alfred Henty, 1896 List of Books for High School Libraries of the State of Wisconsin... Wisconsin. Education, Department of, 1900 Adrift on the Pacific: A Boy's Story of the Sea and its Perils Edward Sylvester Ellis, 2020-09-28 For the first time Captain Strathmore looked down at the little girl who was staring around her with the wondering curiosity of childhood. She was apparently about six years of age and the picture of infantile innocence and loveliness. She was dressed with good taste, her little feet being incased in Cinderella like slippers while the pretty stockings and dress set off the figure to perfection. She wore a fashionable straw hat with a gay ribbon and indeed looked like a child of wealthy parents who had let her out for a little jaunt along some shady avenue. When Captain Strathmore looked down upon this sweet child a great pang went through his heart for she was the picture of the little girl that once called him father. Her mother died while little Inez was an infant and as soon as the cherished one could dispense with the care of a nurse she joined her father the captain and henceforth was not separated from him. She was always on ship or steamer sharing his room and becoming the pet of every one who met her no less from her loveliness than from her childish winning ways. But there came one awful dark day away out in the Pacific when the sweet voice was hushed forever and the rugged old captain was bowed by a grief such as that which smites the mountain oak to the earth. The little girl who now looked up in the face of Captain Strathmore was the image of Inez who years before had sunk to the bottom of the sea carrying with her all the sunshine, music and loveliness that cheered her father's heart. With an impulse he could not resist the captain reached out his arms and the little stranger instantly ran into them.
