

The background of the slide is a photograph of a stack of old, worn books and some papers. The books have yellowed, aged spines. In the foreground, there are several sheets of paper, some of which appear to be old photographs or documents with dark, possibly inked or painted, areas. The lighting is soft and focused on the books, creating a sense of history and scholarship.

THE MASTERS OF MODERN FRENCH CRITICISM

The Masters Of Modern French Criticism:

The Masters of Modern French Criticism Irving Babbitt, 1913 This volume does not criticize criticism but criticizes critics The critics examined are among the most vital and significant personalities of their time To study Sainte Beuve and the other leading French critics is to get very close to the intellectual center of the century Readers may thus follow the main movement of this thought through this period and build up the necessary background for understanding the ideas of the present day whether they continue this earlier thought or react from it The so called anti intellectualist movement can only be understood with reference to such a background it is a reaction from the dogmatic naturalism that reached its height in the second half of the nineteenth century In the end the judgment of the keen sighted few in the present will be ratified by the verdict of posterity The Masters of Modern French Criticism Irving Babbitt, 1940 The Masters of Modern French Criticism Irving Babbitt, 1930 The Masters of Modern French Criticism Irving Babbitt, 1912 This volume does not criticize criticism but criticizes critics The critics examined are among the most vital and significant personalities of their time To study Sainte Beuve and the other leading French critics is to get very close to the intellectual center of the century Readers may thus follow the main movement of this thought through this period and build up the necessary background for understanding the ideas of the present day whether they continue this earlier thought or react from it The so called anti intellectualist movement can only be understood with reference to such a background it is a reaction from the dogmatic naturalism that reached its height in the second half of the nineteenth century In the end the judgment of the keen sighted few in the present will be ratified by the verdict of posterity The Masters of Modern French Criticism (Classic Reprint) Irving Babbitt, 2015-07-06 Excerpt from The Masters of Modern French Criticism What I have tried to do in this volume is not to criticise criticism at best a somewhat languid business but to criticise critics which may be a far more legitimate task especially if the critics happen to be as in the present case among the most vital and significant personalities of their time Matthew Arnold speaks in one of his sonnets of France famed in all great arts in none supreme Yet elsewhere he accords to Sainte Beuve a supremacy in the art of criticism of the same order as that of Homer in poetry That Arnold was the last man to underestimate a supremacy of this kind we may infer from the familiar sentence in his essay on translating Homer Of the literature of France and Germany as of the intellect of Europe in general the main effort for now many years has been a critical effort To study Sainte Beuve and the other leading French critics of the nineteenth century is therefore to get very close to the intellectual centre of the century We may thus follow the main movement of thought through this period and at the same time build up the necessary background for the proper understanding of the ideas of our own day whether they continue this earlier thought or react from it About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst Democracy and Imperialism William S Smith, 2019-08-20 Following costly U S engagement in two wars in the Middle East questions about the appropriateness of American military interventions dominate foreign policy debates Is an interventionist foreign policy compatible with the American constitutional tradition This book examines critic Irving Babbitt s 1865 1933 unique contribution to understanding the quality of foreign policy leadership in a democracy Babbitt explored how a democratic nation s foreign policy is a product of the moral and cultural tendencies of the nation s leaders arguing that the substitution of expansive sentimental Romanticism for the religious and ethical traditions of the West would lead to imperialism The United States move away from the restraint and order of sound constitutionalism to involve itself in the affairs of other nations will inevitably cause a clash with the civilizational regions that have emerged in recent decades Democracy and Imperialism uses the question of soul types to address issues of foreign policy leadership and discusses the leadership qualities that are necessary for sound foreign policy H. D. and Hellenism Eileen

Gregory, 1997-09-28 H D and Hellenism Classic Lines concerns a prominent aspect of the writing of the modern American poet H D Hilda Doolittle a lifelong engagement with hellenic literature mythology and art H D s hellenic intertextuality is examined in the context of classical fictions operative at the turn of the century the war of words among literary critics establishing a new classicism in reaction to romanticism the fictions of classical transmission and the problem of women within the classical line nineteenth century romantic hellenism represented in the writing of Walter Pater and the renewed interest in ancient religion brought about by anthropological studies represented in the writing of Jane Ellen Harrison Eileen Gregory explores at length H D s intertextual engagement with specific classical writers Sappho Theocritus and the Greek Anthology Homer and Euripides The concluding chapter sketches chronologically H D s career long study and reinvention of Euripidean texts An appendix catalogues classical subtexts in Collected Poems 1912 1944 edited by Louis Martz
