Centuries of Silence Leonardo Ferreira,2006-10-30 The history of Latin American journalism is ultimately the story of a people who have been silenced over the centuries primarily Native Americans women peasants and the urban poor This book seeks to correct the record propounded by most English language surveys of Latin American journalism which tend to neglect pre Columbian forms of reporting the ways in which technology has been used as a tool of colonization and the Latin American conceptual foundations of a free press Challenging the conventional notion of a free marketplace of ideas in a region plagued with serious problems of poverty violence propaganda political intolerance poor ethics journalism education deficiencies and media concentration in the hands of an elite Ferreira debunks the myth of a free press in Latin America The diffusion of colonial presses in the New World resulted in the imposition of a structural censorship with elements that remain to this day They include ethnic and gender discrimination technological elitism state and religious authoritarianism and ideological controls Impoverished afraid of crime and violence and without access to an effective democracy ordinary Latin Americans still live silenced by ruling actors that include a dominant and concentrated media Thus not only is the press not free in Latin America but it is also itself an instrument of oppression

Indigenous Cosmolectics Gloria Elizabeth Chacón, 2018-09-28 Latin America s Indigenous writers have long labored under the limits of colonialism but in the late twentieth and twenty first centuries they have constructed a literary corpus that moves them beyond those parameters Gloria E Chac n considers the growing number of contemporary Indigenous writers who turn to Maya and Zapotec languages alongside Spanish translations of their work to challenge the tyranny of monolingualism and cultural homogeneity Chac n argues that these Maya and Zapotec authors reconstruct an Indigenous literary tradition rooted in an Indigenous cosmolectics a philosophy originally grounded in pre Columbian sacred conceptions of the cosmos time and place and now expressed in creative writings More specifically she attends to Maya and Zapotec literary and cultural forms by theorizing kab awil as an Indigenous philosophy Tackling the political and literary implications of this work Chac n argues that Indigenous writers use of familiar genres alongside Indigenous language use of oral traditions and new representations of selfhood and nation all create space for expressions of cultural and political autonomy Chac n recognizes that Indigenous writers draw from universal literary strategies but nevertheless argues that this literature is a vital center for reflecting on Indigenous ways of knowing and is a key artistic expression of decolonization
