Lee Gurga

The Measure Of Emptiness:

The Measure of Emptiness Lee Gurga,1991 Frank Gohlke: Measure of Emptiness ,2018-12 Measure of Emptiness is a meditation on the vast spaces of the Great Plains the heartland of American agricultural productivity and the centrality of the grain elevator to its social cultural and symbolic life In photographs made between 1972 and 1977 with the support of fellowships from the Guggenheim Foundation and the National Endowment of Art Frank Gohlke traveled back and forth through the central tier of states from his home in Minneapolis Minnesota to the Texas Panhandle seeking an answer to the puzzle of the grain elevators extraordinary power as architecture in a landscape whose primary dramas were in the sky
In the United States there is more space where nobody is than where anybody is said Gertrude Stein The Great Plains are characterized by this spaciousness and by the presence of windowless rumbling enormous grain elevators rising above the steeples of churches to announce the presence of the town and to explain in great measure the lives and livelihoods of its inhabitants Why did their builders choose that particular form to fulfill and practical necessity And does the experience of great emptiness shape what people think feel and do Practicing the Path Yangsi,2012-08-20 The Lamrim Chenmo or Great Treatise on the Steps of the Path by Je Tsongkhapa is a comprehensive overview of the process of individual enlightenment Meditation on these steps has been a core practice of Tibetan Buddhists for centuries The Lamrim Chenmo presents the Buddha's teachings along a continuum of three spiritual attitudes the person who worries about rebirth the person who wants to escape rebirth and finally the person who strives for buddhahood in order to relieve the suffering of all beings this is the supreme aspiration of the bodhisattva Given over two months to a group of Western Students in Dharamsala India Yangsi Rinpoche's commentary revitalizes our understanding of Tsongkhapa's work giving readers renewed inspiration Jeanne Guyon's Interior Faith Jeanne de la Mothe Guyon,2019-02-04 In seventeenth century France Jeanne Guyon wrote about God I loved him and I burned with his fire because I loved him and I loved him in such a way that I could love only him but in loving him I had no motive save himself She called this the pure love of God Guyon traveled throughout Europe teaching others how to pray and her books became popular bestsellers She expressed her Christian faith that Jesus Christ lives within our interior life As Guyon became increasingly popular the church and state authorities used the power of the Roman Catholic Inquisition and arrested her charging her with heresy Guyon spent nearly ten years incarcerated including five years in the Bastille from 1698-1703 The state authorities judged her innocent After her release she lived in Blois on the Loire River and welcomed visitors from Europe and the New World who talked with her about the Christian faith This is the first English translation of Guyon's Commentary on the Gospel of Luke Heidegger and the Measure of Truth Denis McManus,2012-11-29 Denis McManus presents a new interpretation of Martin Heidegger's early vision of our subjectivity and of the world we inhabit Heidegger's fundamental ontology allows us to understand the creature that thinks as also one which acts moves even touches the world around it a creature at home in the same ordinary world in which we too live our lives when outside of the philosophical closet it also promises to free us from seemingly intractable philosophical problems such as scepticism about the external world and other minds But many of the concepts central to that vision are elusive and some of the most widely accepted interpretations of Heidegger's vision harbour within themselves deep and important unclarity while others foist upon us hopeless species of idealism Heidegger and the Measure of Truth offers a new way of understanding that vision Drawing on an examination of Heidegger's work throughout the 1920s McManus takes as central to that vision the proposals that propositional thought presupposes a mastery of what might be called a measure and that mastery of such a measure requires a recognizably worldly subject These insights provide the basis for a novel reading of key elements of Heidegger's fundamental ontology including his concept of Being in the world his critique of scepticism his claim to disavow both realism and idealism and his difficult reflections on the nature of truth science authenticity and philosophy itself According to this interpretation Heidegger's central claims identify genuine demands that we must meet if we are to achieve the feat of thinking determinate thoughts about the world around us

The God Catchers Tommy Tenney, 2002-10-06 Why do some believers experience genuine life changing personal revival while others don't In The God Catchers the sequel to the phenomenal The God Chasers Tommy explains the difference God in a sense plays hide and seek But like a loving parent He always makes sure He can be found by those who take the time to look Simply put those who earnestly seek God rather than wait for something to happen find Him Full of biblical and contemporary accounts of believers who chased God and caught Him The God Catchers will motivate readers to discover the joy of finding God and having a loving relationship with Him

Vision's Invisibles Véronique M. Fóti, 2012-02-01 Although philosophy today has abandoned its former fascination with transcendent invisibles it has left largely unexamined historical articulations of the divide between the visible and the invisible Vision's Invisibles argues that such a self examination is necessary for the sensitization of philosophical sight as well as for engagements with visibility in other domains To this end it investigates a range of challenging understandings of visibility in its relation to invisibles as articulated in the texts of key historical thinkers Heraclitus Plato and Descartes and of twentieth century philosophers including Foucault Merleau Ponty

the most renowned of all Dogen's essays Recommending Zazen to All People Philosophy Ranganayakamma, The question of unintelligibility does not arise with regard to books of fiction such as the stories and novels irrespective of how they are written Even if a story is not understood there is no great harm done The problem is with the theoretical essays Even there there is no problem with the essays related to the natural science if the language is simple The real problem is with the books of philosophy When we find the word philosophy on the face of the book we feel that this book is meant for the scholars not for us The very word philosophy at the outset will scare us immensely When we read the word philosophy on the face of a book it does not mean that it represents a great truth or a great science The contents of the book could be correct or useless or a blend of both The logic of the book will be in accordance with the philosophy of the book A correct one will have a correct logic a wrong one will have a wrong logic and a vacillating one will have a vacillating logic Five Tomes Against Nestorius Saint Cyril (Patriarch of Alexandria), 1881
