The Mediaeval Islamic Underworld Part One The Banu Sasan In Arabic Life And Lore:

The mediaeval islamic underworld Clifford Edmund Bosworth,1976 Arab Social Life in the Middle Ages Shirley Guthrie,2013-08-01 This vivid portrait of everyday life in the medieval Arab world draws on thirteenth century miniatures from collections as far afield as St Petersburg and Istanbul The wide range of topi covers every aspect of society in the Abbasid period from life at court to the pomp and ceremony of the military from the dispensing of justice to the bustle of the suq and slave market The routine of village life is contrasted with the pleasures of urban society and we are also introduced to the world of musicians and professional mourners Women are shown not only as virtuous wives and in childbirth but as spirited and articulate individuals The traditions of Arab hospitality are described with scenes of drinking feasting and etiquette The author has illustrated her study with contemporary miniatures principally those of al Wasiti which accompany the celebrated Maqamat of al Hariri In his text al Hariri made no attempt to conceal his admiration for his unprincipled and thoroughly disreputable protagonist Abu Zayd who represents the voice of the common man and possibly provides a prototype for the popular picaresque heroes of later European literature Al Hariri frequently used the tales as a subtle and indirect way of satirizing the prevailing social order yet he was insistent that his work had an underlying moral purpose Guthrie s work is scholarly and her book is a mine of information on both basic and recondite features of Islamic society Robert Irwin Times Literary Supplement Very lively and informative on a wide range of topi in medieval Islamic history The book is eminently accessible to students and non specialists and is certainly one that merits close attention Medical History An essential read for Arabs and non Arabs alike al Hayat The Medieval Islamic Underworld Clifford Edmund Bosworth,1976 Art, Allegory and the Rise of Shi'ism in Iran, 1487-1565 Kia Chad Kia,2019-06-03 Transforming our understanding of Persian art this impressive interdisciplinary book decodes some of the world s most exquisite medieval paintings It reveals the hidden meaning behind enigmatic figures and scenes that have puzzled modern scholars focusing on five miniature paintings Chad Kia shows how the cryptic elements in these works of art from Timurid Persia conveyed the mystical teachings of Sufi poets like Rumi Attar and Jami and heralded one of the most significant events in the history of Islam the takeover by the Safavids in 1501 and the conversion of Iran to Shiism Wandering, Begging Monks Daniel Caner,2002-08-05 An apostolic lifestyle characterized by total material renunciation homelessness and begging was practiced by monks throughout the Roman Empire in the fourth and fifth centuries Such monks often served as spiritual advisors to urban aristocrats whose patronage gave them considerable authority and independence from episcopal control This book is the first comprehensive study of this type of Christian poverty and the challenge it posed for episcopal authority and the promotion of monasticism in late antiquity Focusing on devotional practices Daniel Caner draws together diverse testimony from Egypt Syria Asia Minor and elsewhere including the Pseudo Clementine Letters to Virgins Augustine s On the Work of Monks John Chrysostom s homilies legal codes to reveal gospel inspired patterns of ascetic dependency and teaching from the third to the fifth centuries Throughout his point of departure is social and cultural history especially the urban social history of the late Roman empire He also introduces many charismatic individuals whose struggle to persist against church suppression of their chosen way of imitating Christ was fought with defiant conviction and the book includes the first annotated English translation of the biography of Alexander Akoimetos Alexander the Sleepless Wandering Begging Monks allows us to understand these fascinating figures of early Christianity in the full context of late Roman society Current British Research in Middle Eastern and Islamic Studies, 1977 Contesting Inter-Religious Conversion in the Medieval World Yosi Yisraeli, Yaniv Fox, 2016-12-08 The Mediterranean and its hinterlands were the scene of intensive and transformative contact between cultures in the Middle Ages From the seventh to the seventeenth century the three civilizations into which the region came to be divided geographically the Islamic Khalifate the Byzantine Empire and the Latin West were busily redefining themselves vis vis one another Interspersed throughout the region were communities of minorities such as Christians in Muslim lands Muslims in Christian lands heterodoxical sects pagans and of course Jews One of the most potent vectors of interaction and influence between these communities in the medieval world was inter religious conversion the process whereby groups or individuals formally embraced a new religion The chapters of this book explore this dynamic what did it mean to convert to Christianity in seventh century Ireland What did it mean to embrace Islam in tenth century Egypt Are the two phenomena comparable on a social cultural and legal level The chapters of the book also ask what we are able to learn from our sources which at times provide a very culturally charged and specific conversion rhetoric Taken as a whole the compositions in this volume set out to argue that inter religious conversion was a process that was recognizable and comparable throughout its geographical and chronological purview Classical Arabic Stories Salma Khadra Jayyusi, 2012 Reflects the bustling life of Muslim Arabs and Islamized Persians and speaks to the urbanization of the Arab domains after Islam These texts illuminate the wide spectrum of early Arab life and the influences and innovations that flourished in medieval Arab society back cover Library Catalogue: Title index University of London. Arab Women in the Middle Ages Shirley Guthrie, 2001 Regardless of social rank and religion whether Christian Jew or Muslim Arab women in the Middle Ages played an important role in the functioning of society This book is a rare journey into their daily lives their private spaces and public roles We are introduced into the womens sanctuaries their homes and what occurs within its realm marriage and contraception childbirth and childcare culinary traditions body and beauty rituals providing rare insight into the rites and rituals prevalent among the different communities of the time Drawing from the Islamic traditions as well as legal documents historical sources and popular chronicles of the time Guthries book is an informative study of an area which remains relatively unexplored
