Farris, Mirya R. Holman, 2024-09-05 A sobering exploration of the near unchecked power of sheriffs in the United States Across the United States more than 3 000 sheriffs occupy a unique position in the US political and legal systems Elected by voters usually in low visibility noncompetitive elections sheriffs oversee more than a third of law enforcement employees and control almost all local jails They have the power to both set and administer policies and they can imprison harm and even kill members of their communities Yet they enjoy a degree of autonomy not seen by other political officeholders The Power of the Badge offers an unprecedented data rich look into the politics of the office and its effects on local communities Emily M Farris and Mirya R Holman draw on two surveys of sheriffs taken nearly a decade apart as well as election data case studies and administrative data to show how a volatile combination of authority and autonomy has created an environment where sheriffs rarely change elections seldom create meaningful accountability employees budgets and jails can be used for political gains marginalized populations can be punished and reforms fail Farris and Holman also track the increasingly close linkages between sheriffs and right wing radical groups in an era of high partisanship and intra federal conflict Words, Names, and History Cecily Clark, 1995 Cecily Clark 1926 1992 is familiar to medievalists as editor of the Peterborough Chronicle others will know her work in Anglo Saxon Anglo Norman and Middle English studies in particular her extensive researches in medieval English onomastics She lectured at the universities of London Edinburgh and Aberdeen before settling in Cambridge as Research Fellow of successively Newnham College and Clare Hall She was past joint editor of Nomina a Council member of the English Place Name Society and a member of the International Committee of Onomastic Sciences
