The Medieval Mediterranean Marilyn Joyce Segal Chiat, Kathryn Reyerson, 1988 The Medieval Mediterranean Marilyn Joyce Segal Chiat, 1991-02-01 Minnesota Archive Editions uses digital technology to make long unavailable books once again accessible to scholars students researchers and general readers Rich with historical and cultural value these works are published unaltered from the original University of Minnesota Press editions The books offered through Minnesota Archive Editions are produced in limited quantities according to customer demand and are available through select distribution partners The Cambridge History of Christianity: Volume 4, Christianity in Western Europe, c.1100-c.1500 Miri Rubin, Walter Simons, 2014-07-31 During the early middle ages Europe developed complex and varied Christian cultures and from about 1100 secular rulers competing factions and inspired individuals continued to engender a diverse and ever changing mix within Christian society This volume explores the wide range of institutions practices and experiences associated with the life of European Christians in the later middle ages The clergy of this period initiated new approaches to the role of priests bishops and popes and developed an ambitious project to instruct the laity For lay people the practices of parish religion were central but many sought additional ways to enrich their lives as Christians Impulses towards reform and renewal periodically swept across Europe led by charismatic preachers and supported by secular rulers This book provides accessible accounts of these complex historical processes and entices the reader towards further enquiry

The Stranger in Medieval Society F. R. P. Akehurst, Stephanie Cain Van D'Elden, 1997 Minnesota Archive Editions uses digital technology to make long unavailable books once again accessible to scholars students researchers and general readers Rich with historical and cultural value these works are published unaltered from the original University of Minnesota Press editions The books offered through Minnesota Archive Editions are produced in limited quantities according to customer demand and are available through select distribution partners The Medieval Military Engineer Peter Fraser Purton, 2018 Sheds light on the skills and techniques of the medieval military engineer over a thousand year sweep The results of medieval engineering still surround us cathedrals castles stone bridges irrigation systems However the siege artillery siege towers temporary bridges earthwork emplacements and underground mines used for war have left little trace behind them and there is even less of the engineers themselves the people behind the military engineering achievements The evidence for this neglected group is studied here The author begins by considering the evolution of military technology across centuries and the impact of new technologies in the context of the economic and social developments which made them possible He looks at how military engineers obtained their skills and the possible link with scholastic scientific awareness With the increased survival of government records from the middle ages engineers acquire names and individuals can be identified And the fifteenth century the age of polymaths such as Leonardo da Vinci saw a new type of literate military engineer part of a recognized profession but with its roots in a thousand years of historical development PETER PURTON D

Phil Oxon FSA has written extensively on medieval fortifications and siege warfare his publications include the comprehensive two volume history of the medieval siege Boydell 2010 Christians, Muslims, and Jews in Medieval and Early Modern Spain Mark D. Meyerson, Edward D. English, 2000-08-31 The essays in this interdisciplinary volume examine the social and cultural interaction of Christians Muslims and Jews in Spain during the medieval and early modern periods Together the essays provide a unique comparative perspective on compelling problems of ethnoreligious relations Christians Muslims and Jews in Medieval and Early Modern Spain considers how certain social and political conditions fostered fruitful cultural interchange while others promoted mutual hostility and aversion The volume examines the factors that enabled one religious minority to maintain its cultural integrity and identity more effectively than another in the same sociopolitical setting This volume provides an enriched understanding of how Christians Muslims and Jews encountered ideological antagonism and negotiated the theological and social boundaries that separated them Voyage to the Other World Calvin B. Kendall, Peter S. Wells, 1992 City and Spectacle in Medieval Europe Barbara Hanawalt, Kathryn Reyerson, 1994 Urban ceremonial in the Middle Ages took various forms and served a number of different ends private collegial political and religious Broadly construed urban ceremonial included public functions of multiple sorts From private but public celebrations of births marriages and deaths to the grand entries of rulers into cities the spectacles were designed to impress events on collective memory from the Introduction An Aesthetic Occupation Daniel Bertrand Monk, 2002-03-18 The contested politics of space and architecture in Mandate Palestine Chaucer's England Barbara Hanawalt, 1992 Represents the first time that disciples of history and English literature have joined forces to present new interpretations of late fourteenth century English society
