The Men Inside:

The Men Inside George Phillipos, 2005 A brilliant collection of short stories woven out of the author's association with the seas as a marine engineer Exquisitely narrated the author is able to transport the reader into the deep seas with his characters Through the tapestry of his narration Phillipos is able to delineate the stories of ordinary human beings and their ordinary human emotions on one hand while on the other he dabbles with the realm of the unreal paranormal Anecdotal and churned out of his personal memory this collection is simply unputdownable The Men Inside Barry N.

Malzberg, 2011-09-29 Earth's Elite or its outcasts For a selected genetically fitted few among the teeming millions of the twenty first century to become a Messenger for the Hulm Institute is to escape the prison that is life that is earth A Messenger is Noble A Messenger is One of the Chosen A Messenger is a Forerunner of a Time in which Fear and Disease will Disappear Forever And inside a Messenger's head is murder impotence and despair The Man Inside Graham

Apthorpe, 2019-07-05 Graham Apthorpe's account of the Cowra outbreak is superb Narrated in a fresh way in elegant and original prose and with a wonderful gift for taking the unexpected angle it does great service to this astonishing Australian Japanese event and will have a honoured place in the canon of fascinating works on the incident Thomas Keneally The War in the Pacific has turned thousands of the previously invincible Japanese soldiers are now being captured in New Guinea and interned at the Cowra Prisoner of War Camp Unlike other POWs the traditional Japanese Bushido Code and their fanaticism leaves them ill equipped for surrender and imprisonment Ashamed subdued and sullen one man Second Lieutenant Maseo Naka is an exception Obstructing the Australian authorities at every turn he was the first Japanese soldier to escape from Cowra This action becomes the precursor for the more than 1000 Japanese prisoners who escape in the bloodiest Breakout of World War II that ultimately saw 234 Japanese and four Australian guards killed His escape and the defiance guilt and shame that motivated it led to his court martial Naka nevertheless stands out as very human another tragic victim of the global inferno that was World War II Adhering to the Samurai Code of Bushido he doggedly undertakes actions that he views as necessary for the maintenance of his honour Through the insights of those around Naka together with new research including the personal accounts of Australian interrogators the author shows how this handsome loner provided the impetus for the dramatic events in the early hours of August 5 1944 where hundreds of Japanese soldiers stormed the Camp defences for honour or death 12 Angry Men: Inside the Jury Room and the Psychology of Persuasion Tim Madsen, A timeless film A room full of jurors A mirror held up to society 12 Angry Men Inside the Jury Room and the Psychology of Persuasion is a deep provocative exploration of Sidney Lumet's iconic 1957 film through the lenses of psychology law ethics and human behavior More than a scene by scene analysis this book offers a layered dissection of the dynamics that unfold when twelve strangers are tasked with deciding a boy's fate and their own moral convictions Across ten expertly crafted chapters this nonfiction work examines each juror as a psychological profile investigates the mechanisms of groupthink and bias and traces the film's subtle use of silence nonverbal cues and emotional breakdowns From the courage of Juror 8 to the prejudice of Juror 10 from cognitive shortcuts to the slow unfolding of reasonable doubt the book brings to light the enduring relevance of a film where everything and nothing is said aloud Ideal for readers interested in justice social psychology leadership or ethical reasoning this book serves as both a tribute to a cinematic classic and a practical reflection on how persuasion empathy and dissent operate in real world decision making Whether you are a lawyer educator student or simply a thoughtful viewer this book will challenge you to reconsider what it means to judge and how easily we all do The Institution Quarterly ,1914 The Lancet ,1909 Report of the Commissioners of the Illinois State Penitentiary at Joliet Illinois State Penitentiary, Joliet,1915 Official Proceedings St. Louis Railway Club,1926 Documents of the Senate of the State of New York New York (State).
