Sculptum Est Prosa (Volume 2) Ivan Kireevskii, 2018-11-07 This volume explores the range and uses of quotations echoes and allusions drawn from thousands of intertextual instances that Kireevskii has recognized in his work The principal interest of the echoes examined here lies in the revaluation of the poet and the theoretical issues his varied use of them suggests Through echoing Kireevskii embodies and explicates his assertions of continuity in human development his vision of interchange between the mind and nature As a poet he is a person who constantly experiences sees hears suspects hopes and dreams extraordinary things is struck by his own thoughts as if from outside or from above and below as if by his type of events and lightning bolts is perhaps a storm himself pregnant with new lightning and is a fatal person in whose vicinity things are always rumbling growling gaping and acting in uncanny ways Listen very carefully because Kireevskii writes in a very symbolic form and unless you are very alert in reading his words you may miss all the implications The reason why he is so symbolic is that he is so full of new insights and he has so much he desires to share and to give As with a hermit's writings you can always hear something of the echo of the desert something of the whisper and the timid sideways glance of solitude a concealed philosophy where every opinion is also a hiding place every word is also a mask

Dionysus, Christ, and the Death of God, Volume 2 Giuseppe Fornari, 2020-09-01 This magisterial reflection on the history and destiny of the West compares Greco Roman civilization and the Judeo Christian tradition in order to understand what both unites and divides them Mediation understood as a collective symbolic experience gives society unity and meaning putting human beings in contact with a universal object known as the world or reality But unity has a price the very force that enables peaceful coexistence also makes us prone to conflict As a result in order to find a common point of convergence of at one ment someone must be sacrificed Sacrifice then is the historical pillar of mediation It was endorsed in a cosmic religious sense in antiquity and rejected for ethical reasons in modernity where the Judeo Christian tradition plays an intermediate role in condemning sacrificial violence as such while accepting sacrifice as a voluntary act offered to save other human beings Today as we face the collapse of all shared mediations this intermediating solution offers a way out of our moral and cultural plight
