Town & Country, 1929 Becoming T. S. Eliot Jayme Stayer, 2021-10-05 How did an ordinary if intelligent boy who wrote unremarkable poems become with no help and in record time the author of one of the most significant and beloved poems of the twentieth century T S Eliot's juvenilia show little inclination to question the social cultural religious or domestic values he had inherited How did a young man who wrote uninspired doggerel about wilting flowers transform himself in a mere twenty months into the author of The Love Song of J Alfred Prufrock In Becoming T S Eliot Jayme Stayer praised by Christopher Ricks as a scholar who is scrupulous in acknowledging the contingencies that will always preclude perfection explains this staggering accomplishment by tracing Eliot's artistic and intellectual development Relying on archival research and original analysis this is the first book dedicated entirely to Inventions of the March Hare Eliot's youthful notebook which was once thought lost but was rediscovered after Eliot's death Stayer places Eliot's verses in the chronological order of their composition teasing out the narratives of their making Focusing on the period from 1909 to 1915 this incisive portrait of Eliot as a budding writer is as much a study of Eliot himself as it is a study of how a writer hones his voice The History of Southern Women's Literature Carolyn Perry, Mary Weeks-Baxter, 2002-03-01 Many of America's foremost and most beloved authors are also southern and female Mary Chesnut Kate Chopin Ellen Glasgow Zora Neale Hurston Eudora Welty Harper Lee Maya Angelou Anne Tyler Alice Walker and Lee Smith to name several Designating a writer as southern if her work reflects the region's grip on her life Carolyn Perry and Mary Louise Weeks have produced an invaluable guide to the richly diverse and enduring tradition of southern women's literature Their comprehensive history the first of its kind in a relatively young field extends from the pioneer woman to the career woman embracing black and white poor and privileged urban and Appalachian perspectives and experiences The History of Southern Women's Literature allows readers both to explore individual authors and to follow the developing arc of various genres across time Conduct books and slave narratives Civil War diaries and letters the antebellum postbellum and modern novel autobiography and memoirs poetry magazine and newspaper writing these and more receive close attention Over seventy contributors are represented here and their essays discuss a wealth of women's issues from four centuries race urbanization and feminism the myth of southern womanhood preset images and assigned social roles from the belle to the mammy and real life behind the facade of meeting others expectations poverty and the labor movement responses to Uncle Tom's Cabin and the influence of Gone with the Wind The history of southern women's literature tells ultimately the story of the search for freedom within an insidious tradition to quote Ellen Glasgow This teeming volume validates the deep contributions and pleasures of an impressive body of writing

Eliot's Silent Voices* John Theodore Mayer, 1989 This is the first comprehensive in depth study of Eliot's unpublished verse Through a close reading of the poems themselves Mayer offers a new look at the familiar works by approaching them as a Modernist poetry of consciousness expressed in a new poetic form as the psychic monologue Uncovering new themes discovered in unpublished poetry he develops a new approach to The Wasteland that shows for the first time how the separate voices of the poem relate to the poem's protagonist how they simultaneously shape his experience of release and how they culminate in a prophetic statement Calling attention to the operation of play routines and cycles in the unpublished and familiar works to the interplay of City and Psyche and to the relationship between voices and vision the book establishes the undeniable value of Eliot's unpublished verse in shaping the form and preoccupations of his early poetry The New Yorker Harold Wallace Ross, William Shawn, Katharine Sergeant Angell White, Tina Brown, Rea Irvin, 1928 Catalog of Copyright Entries.
