Research for What? Barbara E. Moely,Barbara A. Holland,Jeff Keshen,2010-11-01 Research on service learning and community engagement has exploded over the past decade It is a field now characterized by increasing methodological and theoretical sophistication vast quantitative and qualitative studies interdisciplinary research myriad subjects and the internationalization of scholarship The papers in this volume were selected from nearly 100 presentations made at the 2009 annual conference of the International Association for Research on Service Learning and Community Engagement held in Ottawa Canada s national capital The conference theme Research for What emphasized fundamental questions namely to what extent is rigorous research uncovering best practices in and demonstrating the positive results of service learning on teaching learning and building better communities The papers examine such themes through lenses that include the application of theory to practice K 12 and university based service learning interdisciplinary initiatives and international service learning The introduction provides an overview of the very recent but remarkable growth of service learning in Canada and the conclusion written by the recipient of the Association s annual Distinguished Researcher Award discusses major developments and continuing challenges in service learning research

Navajo Blessingway Singer Frank Mitchell,2003 This life history of a Navajo leader recorded in the 1960s and first published in 1977 is a classic work in the study of Navajo history and religious traditions A skillful meticulous and altogether praiseworthy contribution to Navajo studies Although the focus of Mitchell s autobiography is upon his role as a Blessingway singer there is much material here on Navajo history and culture in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries Mitchell attended the government school at Fort Defiance worked on the railroad in Arizona served as a handyman and interpreter at several trading posts and the Franciscan missions and later served as a tribal councilman in the 1930s and as a judge in the 1940s and 1950s His observations on these experiences are relevant to our understanding of contemporary Navajo life Lawrence C Kelly Western Historical Quarterly This book stands easily among the best of the native autobiographies Narrated by a thoughtful and articulate Navajo leader over a span of eighteen years this life history is brought into English with none of the selective romanticizing that has spoiled some books It is a superb job of bringing one culture ever closer to another Barre Tolken Western Folklore
