Theory of Form Florian Klinger,2022-06-24 A pragmatist conception of artistic form through a study of the painter Gerhard Richter In this study of the practice of contemporary painter Gerhard Richter Florian Klinger proposes a fundamental change in the way we think about art today In reaction to the exhaustion of the modernist postmodernist paradigm s negotiation of the essence of art he takes Richter to pursue a pragmatist model that understands artistic form as action Here form is no longer conceived according to what it says as a vehicle of expression representation or realization of something other than itself but strictly according to what it does Through its doing Klinger argues artistic form is not only more real but also more shared than non artistic reality and thus enables interaction under conditions where it would otherwise not be possible It is a human practice aimed at testing and transforming the limits of shared reality urgently needed in situations where such reality breaks down or turns precarious Drawing on pragmatist thought philosophical aesthetics and art history Klinger s account of Richter s practice offers a highly distinctive conceptual alternative for contemporary art in general
