Stone Roofing:

Conservation of Building and Decorative Stone F G Dimes,J. Ashurst,2007-11-02 One of the problems which beset the practical conservation of stone buildings is the fragmentation of the disciplines involved This book with both volumes now available as one invaluable paperback brings these disciplines together by the involvement of contributors with different experiences and approaches to the same material Part one is an introduction to the complexities and background history of stone conservation followed by the most comprehensive description yet produced of the building and decorative stones used in the British Isles In part two practitioners involved in stone conservation describe ways in which major structural masonry problems secondary building problems and different stone surface conditions may be treated A variety of building types and environments has been used to ensure that the broad scope of common problems is covered This second part of the book will be of practical value to art historians archaeologists architects surveyors and engineers masonry contractors and sculpture conservators in solving problems and in learning to use each other s skills and experience Stone Mick R. Smith,1999

Conservation of Building and Decorative Stone John Ashurst,Francis G. Dimes,1998 One of the problems which beset the conservation of stone buildings is the fragmentation of the disciplines involved This book brings these disciplines together by the involvement of contributors with different experiences approaches Construction Materials Reference Book David Doran,Bob Cather,2013-07-24 This book is the definitive reference source for professionals involved in the conception design and specification stages of a construction project The theory and practical aspects of each material is covered with an emphasis being placed on properties and appropriate use enabling broader deeper understanding of each material leading to greater confidence in their application Containing fifty chapters written by subject specialists Construction Materials Reference Book covers the wide range of materials that are encountered in the construction process from traditional materials such as stone through masonry and steel to advanced plastics and composites With increased significance being placed on broader environmental issues issues of whole life cost and sustainability are covered along with health and safety aspects of both use and installation Local Style in English Architecture Thomas Atkinson,2024-02-29 Originally published in 1947 this book examines the regional styles of architecture which developed inside England itself particularly during the later medieval period It discusses the causes and locations of these regional variations In explaining the cause for the geographical variations in style the author investigates the various factors responsible for bringing them about such as geology race religion foreign influence transport and fashion As churches have survived the passage of time better than many secular buildings the emphasis is on church architecture although not exclusively The book contains over 120 photographs and the book is an original and important inquiry into the origin and development of local styles in English architecture Commercial America ,1913 Ancient Building Technology, Volume 3: Construction (2 vols) G.R.H. Wright,2009-11-23 Building construction is the subject of this third part of the Ancient Building Technology set TCH 4 and

TCH 7 dealing with the history of building and building materials Beginning with the formulation of a project drawings specifications and estimates of quantities it goes on to discuss preliminary site surveying and setting out followed by building site development and its attendant installations and then examines the disposition of the various building materials wood stone brick and concrete in building construction from pre history to the end of antiquity The work is intended as a ready reference compendium of information which otherwise would require extended research to come by It should be of service to all students of antiquity and a particular convenience to have on hand during archaeological field work This volume is published in two parts the first containing the discussion and the second more than 400 illustrations completing the discussion Annual Report New South Wales. Department of Mines,1890 Life, Death and Rubbish Disposal in Roman Norton, North Yorkshire Janet Phillips,Pete Wilson,2021-02-18 This volume reports on excavations in advance of the development of a site in Norton on Derwent North Yorkshire close to the line of the main Roman road running from the crossing point of the River Derwent near Malton Roman fort to York This site provided much additional information on aspects of the poorly understood small town of Delgovicia Sketches at Carnac (Brittany) in 1834; Or, Notes Concerning the Present State of Some Reputed Celtic Antiquities in that and the Adjoining Communes Alexander Blair,Sir Francis Ronalds,1836
