Cartoon Conflicts Richard Scully,Paulo Jorge Fernandes,Ritu Gairola Khanduri,2025-07-28 This edited collection of new research highlights the way in which the cartoon long regarded as a staple of journalism and freedom of expression faces new challenges in the twenty first century that can be far better understood and appreciated if one takes an historical perspective Current debates over the limits of freedom of expression political correctness and cancel culture all have their precedents in past controversies over cartoons and caricature indeed there is a definite continuum between these past instances of debate and their present manifestations Chapters 2 and 10 are available open access under a Creative Commons Attribution 4 0 International License via link springer.com The Transnational Voices of Australia's Migrant and Minority Press Catherine Dewhirst,Richard Scully,2020-11-13 This edited collection invites the reader to enter the diverse worlds of Australia s migrant and minority communities through the latest research on the contemporary printed press spanning the mid nineteenth century to our current day With a focus on the rare radical and foreign language print culture of multiple and frequently concurrent minority groups newspaper ventures this volume has two overarching aims firstly to demonstrate how the local experiences and narratives of such communities are always forged and negotiated within a context of globalising forces the global within the local and secondly to enrich an understanding of the complexity of Australian voices through this medium not only as a means for appreciating how the cultural heritage of such communities were sustained but also for exploring their contributions to the wider society

Consuming Whiteness Stefanie Affeldt,2014 The White Australia Policy the country s historical policy that favored immigration to Australia from various European countries especially Britain has largely been discussed with regard only to its political ideological perspective No account was taken of the central problem of racist societalization i e the everyday production and reproduction of race as a social relation doing race supported by broad sections of the population This comprehensive study of Australian racism and the historical white sugar campaign shows that the latter was only able to achieve success because it was embedded in a widespread white Australia culture that found expression in all spheres of life Series Racism Analysis Series A Studies Vol 4 Subject Social History Australian Studies APAIS 1999: Australian public affairs information service , Redefining the Bonds of Commonwealth, 1939-1948 F. McKenzie,2002-06-06 This work is a path breaking study of the changing attitudes of Canada Australia New Zealand and South Africa to Britain and the Commonwealth in the 1940s and the effect of those changes on their individual and collective standing in international affairs The focus is imperial preference the largest discriminatory tariff system in the world and a potent symbol of Commonwealth unity It is based on archival research in Britain Canada Australia New Zealand and the United States

Gallipoli Diaries Jonathan King, 2014-09-29 Gallipoli for the average Australian is the most famous battle that our volunteer soldiers ever fought because it was our first entry as a nation into the war and our people were keen to prove themselves It would be however a long time before the families back home and the nation as a whole heard of the terrible conditions on the peninsula and the waste of life that took place there Although Gallipoli was a crushing defeat it was and still is celebrated as a victory In this updated commemorative edition published 100 years after the 25 April 1915 landing the Gallipoli story is told day by day using the words of the diggers drivers soldiers and war correspondents at the front line War historian Jonathan King has gathered together an unequalled series of extracts from letters and diaries written by hundreds of Anzacs at Gallipoli accounting for every one of the 240 days of the eight month campaign and even identifying the actual days of the week Reading the men's own words including misspellings and mistakes we share in the soldiers' experiences These Australians of exceptional calibre and good cheer each wrote for different reasons although many made light of their hardships It is all here the fear the frustration and the boredom as they scrounged for bully beef went mad from the flies the lice and the stench of the unburied dead swapped cigarettes with enemy Turks dodged shrapnel while swimming at the beach celebrated birthdays sheltered from rain and shivered in snow and waited for action while praying for deliverance Although generals historians and war scholars have had their stories told many times it is only now when we read the private words of the men at the front line that we can glimpse what Gallipoli was really like PRAISE FOR JONATHAN KING In Jonathan King's Gallipoli Diaries we share the experiences of the diggers from day one It is a story that is spoken in the sometimes halting words of the soldiers and therein lies its power There is much here to enlarge our understanding of the disastrous Gallipoli campaign not least the appalling conditions in the trenches the daily grind of water carrying poor food flies and death Books Publishing A comprehensive history of the whole of the Gallipoli campaign Some notable Australian writers are among the many letter writers and diarists and their writing skills stand out King starts the book with some thoughts about why Australia as a nation celebrates what was after all a crushing defeat The Cooma Monaro Express The
