

3. Greed is a Curse

In a river, a fisherman once caught a golden fish that could grant wishes. "Wow! Hold on, let me ask my wife and get back to you. You stay here," he said and ran to tell his wife. "Of course, ask her to make me a queen and give me a big palace to stay," the fisherman's wife said. "Are you sure you want to ask that?" the fisherman asked in doubt. "Yes! Now hurry up," his wife said. So the fisherman ran back and asked for what his wife wanted. At once his wish was fulfilled. In place of his cottage was a big palace and his wife was dressed like a queen. But she did not remember her husband. "Guards, throw this man out of my palace," she commanded. Saddened to see what had happened, the man went back to the Queen Fish. "Please give my old wife and my old cottage back," he cried. His wish was fulfilled and he got back his wife and the old cottage.

Moral: Greed is undoubtedly a curse.
