Books Out Loud ,2007 Story You Don't Want to Read, About People You Don't Want to Meet Aleksandra Osman,2024-04-26 No one dreams of becoming a refugee I know I was one a child fleeing war torn Sarajevo Though the Bosnian War has faded from global attention for those it displaced the struggle persists Being a refugee is not a one time event but a lifelong series of petty humiliations as you chase the elusive prize of acceptance in a new homeland This collection shares raw stories from refugees like me who now call Canada home On paper Canada welcomes diversity in reality immigrants often face a glass ceiling that excludes us from full participation With irony in this multicultural nation we are made to feel like uncomfortable outcasts burdened by our pasts You may not want to hear our stories because they highlight bitter truths that even in an open armed country refugees endure judgement and distance But acknowledging these stories is the first step toward positive change By reading about our intersecting struggles you become part of the solution helping to shift perspectives and bring us in from the margins Our histories make some uncomfortable but are essential to share if we hope to build a more inclusive society American Directory of Writer's Guidelines ,2007-02 Perhaps the best kept secret in the publishing industry is that many publishers both periodical publishers and book publishers make available writer s guidelines to assist would be contributors Written by the staff at each publishing house these guidelines help writers target their submissions to the exact needs of the individual publisher The American Directory of Writer s Guidelines is a compilation of the actual writer s guidelines for more than 1 700 publishers A one of a kind source to browse for article short story poetry and book ideas Twelve Stories by American Women Arielle Zibrak,2025-03-18 A collection of twelve essential short stories by iconic American women writers that introduces a more diverse canon and emphasizes non white and queer writers to better represent the experiences of all American women and to understand the importance of the short story for women A Penguin Classic When Four Stories by American Women was first published by Penguin Classics in 1990 it understandably reflected the second wave feminist interpretations of that time a period marked by an impressive recovery of what were then considered to be minor American writers Since then the four white women writers included in the volume Rebecca Harding Davis Charlotte Perkins Gilman Sarah Orne Jewett and Edith Wharton have become canonical figures and scholars have grown to see their work as only a small part of the rich tapestry of American women s lives values and political beliefs in the fertile period of late nineteenth century and early twentieth century American literature Today we not only have a deeper understanding of the significance of these texts and the complicated nature of their authors ideological orientations scholars and educators have also expanded the canon of American women writers to more frequently foreground the voices of non white and queer writers whose work speaks more fully to the experiences and beliefs of all American women This updated and expanded volume Twelve Stories by American Women edited by Arielle Zibrak offers a more diverse selection of writers including Frances Ellen Watkins Harper Mar a Cristina Mena Zitkala a Sui Sin Far and Barbara E Pope covers hot button issues such as environmentalism queerness and marital status and provides a new introduction that highlights the developments in the critical understanding of turn of the century American women writers in all of their complexity
