Helping Develop Your Child's Self-Esteem

Stories Children Tell

JG Myers

Stories Children Tell:

The Stories Children Tell Susan Engel, 1995 What is really going on when a child tells or writes a story Engel's insights into this provocative question are drawn from the latest research findings and dozens of actual children's tales compelling funny sometimes disturbing stories often of unexpected richness and beauty

The Stories Children Tell Susan Engel, 1995-01-15 Whether presenting their versions of real events or making up tales of adventure and discovery children enchant us with their stories But the value of those stories goes beyond their charm Storytelling is an essential form through which children interpret their own experiences and communicate their view of the world Each narrative presented by a child is a brushstroke on an evolving self portrait a self portrait the child can reflect on refer to and revise In The Stories Children Tell developmental psychologist Susan Engel examines the methods and meanings of children's narratives She offers a fascinating look at one of the most exciting areas in modern psychology and education What is really going on when a child tells or writes a story Engel's insights into this provocative question are drawn from the latest research findings and dozens of actual children's tales compelling funny sometimes disturbing stories often of unexpected richness and beauty In The Stories Children Tell Susan Engel examines the different functions of storytelling the way the storytelling process changes as children develop the contributions of parents and peers to storytelling the different types of stories children tell the development of a child's narrative voice the best way of nurturing a child's storytelling skills Throughout these discussions Engel presents compelling evidence for what is perhaps her most intriguing idea that in constructing stories children are constructing themselves

Children's Stories in Play Therapy Ann Cattanach, 1997 Ann Cattanach extends her acclaimed earlier published work to explore further the therapeutic value of story making with children Incorporating stories from children and authors the book examines the common themes and metaphors that emerge the purpose of stories and the communication that they can engender between the therapist and the child

Children's Stories and how to Tell Them Woutrina A. Bone, 1924 Explores the origins of myths folk tales and fairy lore introduces the techniques for effective story telling picture making and word choosing and includes several brief fictional selections Google Books

How to Tell Stories to Children Sara Cone Bryant, 1905 The stories which are given in the following pages are for the most part those which I have found to be best liked by the children to whom I have told these and others I have tried to reproduce the form in which I actually tell them although that invariably varies with every repetition feeling that it would be of greater value to another story teller than a more closely literary form My hope is that this book may be of use to those who have much to do with children Preface
