A Womanist Reading of Hebrew Bible Narratives as the Politics of Belonging from an Outsider Within Vanessa Lovelace, 2024-05-29 The U S Declaration of Independence of 1776 decreed that all men were created equal and were endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights Yet U S born free and enslaved Black people were not recognized as citizens with equal protections under the law until the passage of the Fourteenth Amendment Even then White supremacists impeded the equal rights of Black people as citizens due to their beliefs in the inferiority of Black people and that America was a nation for White people White supremacists turned to biblical passages to lend divine justification for their views A Womanist Reading of Hebrew Bible Narratives as the Politics of Belonging from an Outsider Within analyzes select biblical narratives including Noah's curse in Genesis 9 Sarah and Hagar in Genesis 16 and 21 Mother in Israel in Judges 5 and Jezebel Phoenician Princess and Queen of Israel in 1 and 2 Kings This analysis demonstrates how these narratives were first used by ancient biblical writers to include some and exclude others as members of the nation of Israel and then appropriated by White supremacists in the antebellum era and the early twentieth century to do the same in America The book analyzes the simultaneously intersecting and interconnecting dynamics among race gender class and sexuality and biblical narratives to construct boundaries between us versus them particularly the politicization of motherhood to deny certain groups inclusion

Postsecular Poetics Rebekah Cumpsty, 2022-08-11 This book is the first full length study of the postsecular in African literatures Religion secularism and the intricate negotiations between the two codified in recent criticism as postsecularism are fundamental conditions of globalized modernity These concerns have been addressed in social science disciplines but they have largely been neglected in postcolonial and literary studies To remedy this oversight this monograph draws together four areas of study it brings debates in religious and postsecular studies to bear on African literatures and postcolonial studies The focus of this interdisciplinary study is to understand how postsecular negotiations manifest in postcolonial African settings and how they are represented and registered in fiction Through this focus this book reveals how African and African diasporic authors radically disrupt the epistemological and ontological modalities of globalized literary production often characterized as secular and imagine alternatives which incorporate the sacred into a postsecular world

Land and Nationalism in Fictions from Southern Africa James Graham, 2011-01-13 In this volume Graham investigates the relation between land and nationalism in South African and Zimbabwean fiction from the 1960s to the present This comparative study the first of its kind discusses a wide range of writing against a backdrop of regional decolonization including novels by the prize winning authors J M Coetzee Nadine Gordimer Bessie Head Chenjerai Hove and Yvonne Vera By employing a range of critical perspectives cultural materialist feminist and ecocritical this book offers new ways of thinking about the relationship between literature politics and the environment in Southern Africa The return of land has been central to the material and cultural struggles for decolonization in Southern Africa yet between the advent of democracy in Zimbabwe 1980 and South Africa 1994 and Zimbabwe s decision to fast track land redistribution in 2000 it has been limited land reform rather than widespread land redistribution that has prevailed During this period nationalist discourses of reconciliation and economic development replaced those of revolution and decolonization This book develops a critique of both forms of nationalistic narrative by focusing on how different and often opposing idea of land and nation are reflected refracted and even refused in the fictions
