The Mediation Of Ornament:

The Mediation of Ornament Oleg Grabar, 2023-08-15 How ornamentation enables a direct and immediate encounter between viewers and art objects Based on universal motifs ornamentation occurs in many artistic traditions though it reaches its most expressive tangible and unique form in the art of the Islamic world The Mediation of Ornament shares a veteran art historian's love for the sheer sensuality of Islamic ornamentation but also uses this art to show how ornament serves as a consistent intermediary between viewers and artistic works from all cultures and periods Oleg Grabar analyzes early and medieval Islamic objects ranging from frontispieces in Yemen to tilework in the Alhambra and compares them to Western examples treating all pieces as testimony of the work life thought and emotion experienced in one society The Mediation of Ornament is essential reading for admirers of Islamic art and anyone interested in the ways of perceiving and understanding the arts more broadly The Mediation of Ornament Oleg Grabar, 1992

Relics, Prayer, and Politics in Medieval Venetia Thomas E. A. Dale, 1997 Against a historical backdrop of relic theft and propaganda campaigns waged by two cities vying for patriarchal authority in medieval Venetia Thomas Dale shows how Romanesque mural painting shaped sacred space and institutional identity His focus is on the late twelfth century murals in the crypt of Aquileia Cathedral The crypt which contains the relics of Aquileia's founding bishop Saint Hermagoras has a historical significance rooted in a legend identifying the saint as a direct disciple of Saint Mark the Evangelist On this basis the Carolingians promoted the city's status as patriarchal see of Venetia a claim that prompted Venice to steal Mark's relics from Alexandria Egypt and appropriate Aquileia's history This book the first English language study of the crypt explores how the paintings complement the relics of Hermagoras in their distinct devotional and political roles Hermagoras's intercessory power is activated by his orant image displayed over the central aisle within a larger hierarchy of apostles martyrs and bishops The surrounding hagiographic cycle justifies in legalistic fashion Aquileia's patriarchal title and the consecration of the city as locus sanctus of Venetia by the blood of its martyrs The iconic images in the eastern lunettes present the Virgin's compassio as a pictorial model for the vicarious experience of Christ's Passion Finally a fictive curtain over the socle presents allegories of spiritual warfare in the form of exempla from crusades pilgrimage and the epic poem Psychomachia which Dale analyzes as a gloss on the main program

The Understanding of Ornament in the Italian Renaissance Clare Lapraik Guest, 2015-11-16 In this paradigm shifting study developed through close textual readings and sensitive analysis of artworks Clare Lapraik Guest re evaluates the central role of ornament in pre modern art and literature Moving from art and thought in antiquity to the Italian Renaissance she examines the understandings of ornament arising from the Platonic Aristotelian and Sophistic traditions and the tensions which emerged from these varied meanings The book views the Renaissance as a decisive point in the story of ornament when its subsequent identification with style and historicism are established It asserts ornament as a fundamental not an accessory element in art and presents its restoration to theoretical dignity as essential to historical scholarship and aesthetic reflection

Art and Architecture in the Islamic Tradition Mohammed Hamdouni Alami, 2013-12-20 What is art in the sense of the Islamic tradition Mohammed Hamdouni Alami argues that Islamic art has historically been excluded from Western notions of art that the Western aesthetic tradition's preoccupation with the human body and the ban on the representation of the human body in Islam has meant that Islamic and Western art have been perceived as inherently at odds However the move away from this anthropomorphic aesthetic in Western art movements such as modern abstract and constructivist painting have presented the opportunity for new ways of viewing and evaluating Islamic art and architecture This book questions the very idea of art predicated on the anthropocentric bias of classical art and the corollary exclusion of Islamic art from the status of art It addresses a central question in post classical aesthetic theory in as much as the advent of modern abstract and constructivist painting have shown that art can be other than the representation of the human body that art is not neutral aesthetic contemplation but it is fraught with power and violence and that the presupposition of classical art was not a universal truth but the assumption of a specific cultural and historical set of practices and vocabularies Based on close readings of classical Islamic literature philosophy poetry medicine and theology along with contemporary Western art theory the author uncovers a specific Islamic theoretical vision of art and architecture based on poetic practice politics cosmology and desire In particular it traces the effects of decoration and architectural planning on the human soul as well as the centrality of the gaze in this poetic view in Arabic nazar while examining its surprising similarity to modern theories of the gaze Through this double gesture moving critically between two traditions the author brings Islamic thought and aesthetics back into the realm of visibility addressing the lack of recognition in comparison with other historical periods and traditions This is an important step toward a critical analysis of the contemporary debate around the revival of Islamic architectural identity a debate intricately embedded within opposing Islamic political and social projects throughout the world

Muqarnas Gülru Necipoğlu, Karen Leal, 2010-11-11 The articles in Muqarnas 27 address topics such as spolia in medieval Islamic architecture Islamic coinage in the seventh century the architecture of the Alhambra from an environmental perspective and Ottoman Mamluk gift exchange in the fifteenth century The volume also features a new section entitled Notes and Sources with pieces highlighting primary sources such as Akbar's Kath sarits gara Muqarnas An Annual on the Visual Cultures of the Islamic World is sponsored by the Aga Khan Program for Islamic Architecture at Harvard University and the Massachusetts Institute of Technology Cambridge Massachusetts

Tracing the Jerusalem Code Kristin B. Aavitsland, Line M. Bonde, 2021-04-19 With the aim to write the history of Christianity in Scandinavia with Jerusalem as a lens this book investigates the image or rather the imagination of Jerusalem in the religious political and artistic cultures of Scandinavia through most of the second millennium Jerusalem is conceived as a code to Christian cultures in Scandinavia The first volume is dealing with the different notions of Jerusalem in the Middle Ages Tracing the Jerusalem Code in three volumes Volume 1 The Holy City Christian Cultures in Medieval Scandinavia ca 1100 1536 Volume 2 The Chosen People Christian Cultures in Early Modern Scandinavia 1536 ca 1750 Volume 3 The Promised Land Christian Cultures in Modern Scandinavia ca 1750 ca 1920 Sanctioning Modernism Vladimir Kulic, Timothy Parker, Monica Penick, 2014-06-01 In the decades following World War II modern architecture spread around the globe alongside increased modernization urbanization and postwar reconstruction and it eventually won widespread acceptance But as the limitations of conventional conceptions of modernism became apparent modern architecture has come under increasing criticism In this collection of essays experienced and emerging scholars take a fresh look at postwar modern architecture by asking what it meant to be modern what role modern architecture played in constructing modern identities and who sanctioned or was sanctioned by modernism in architecture This volume presents focused case studies of modern architecture in three realms political religious and domestic that address our very essence as human beings Several essays explore developments in Czechoslovakia Romania and Yugoslavia and document a modernist design culture that crossed political barriers such as the Iron Curtain more readily than previously imagined Other essays investigate various efforts to reconcile the concerns of modernist architects with the traditions of the Roman Catholic Church and other Christian institutions And a final group of essays looks at postwar homebuilding in the United States and demonstrates how malleable and contested the image of the American home was in the mid twentieth century These inquiries show the limits of canonical views of modern architecture and reveal instead how civic institutions ecclesiastical traditions individual consumers and others sought to sanction the forms and ideas of modern architecture in the service of their respective claims or desires to be modern
