The Melbourne Scene 1803-1956:

The Melbourne Scene, 1803-1956 James Grant, Geoffrey Serle, 1957 Readings from contemporary sources

Richard Seddon: King of God's Own Tom Brooking, 2014-08-27 2014 Must Read Otago Daily Times The life the health the intelligence and the morals of the nation count for more than riches and I would rather have this country free from want and squalor and unemployed than the home of multi millionaires Richard Seddon 1905 Casting a long shadow over New Zealand history Richard John Seddon Premier from 1893 to his untimely death in 1906 held a clear vision for the country he led Pushing New Zealand in more egalitarian directions than ever before he was both the builder and the maintenance man if not the architect of our country Challenging popular opinion of New Zealand's longest serving Prime Minister as a ruthless pragmatist cunning misogynist and Imperialistic jingoist this landmark biography of Seddon presents an altogether more sympathetic erudite appraisal Reconciling two generations of New Zealand scholarship Richard Seddon King of God's Own demonstrates that while holding fast to common ideals Seddon was successful by mastering the art of the possible He knew instinctively what his electorate would tolerate and remained in step with public opinion Despite contradictions in his attitudes towards other races he fought to ensure privilege did not become entrenched in what he envisioned as a white man's utopia In this perceptive new evaluation political historian Tom Brooking explains Seddon's complex relationship with Maori and shows how he in fact held a progressively bi cultural vision for the future of God's Own Country Seddon was no saint Somewhat autocratic and given to petty nepotism he nevertheless remains the most dominant political leader in our country's history Internationally his high profile within the Empire helped put New Zealand on the map Domestically he sought a middle ground between free market extremism and full blown socialism And more privately Seddon was a devoted family man his actions shaped much more by his supportive wife and assertive daughters than has previously been realised Richard Seddon King of God's Own is a superlative achievement in New Zealand history writing Absorbing wide ranging and beautifully articulated it reframes and repositions one of the founding fathers of modern New Zealand The definitive biography of one of New Zealand's most influential political leaders Paul Moon author of New Zealand in the Twentieth Century King of God's Own is a nuanced and generous assessment of our most famous Premier a man very much of his own time Gavin McLean co editor of the bestselling Frontier of Dreams The Story of New Zealand An excellent biography and a major revision of an important period in this country's history Barry Gustafson acclaimed biographer of Sir Keith Holyoake Sir Robert Muldoon and Michael Joseph Savage Also available as an eBook Dimensions of Urban Social Structure Frank Lancaster Jones, 1969-12-15 The physical segregation of social groups in industrial cities has long attracted the attention of social scientist and casual observer alike In Australia the possibility of mapping the social ecology of large cities has been limited by the absence of sufficiently detailed census of information a gap remedied in 1961 by the provision of a new range of small area data Here the author exploits the existence of the new information to present the first intensive social anatomy of any Australian metropolis Statistics on the residential concentration and segregation of seventy socioeconomic demographic ethnic and religious categories are examined and the vast complexity and range of these data are reduced by sophisticated techniques of statistical analysis to three theoretically meaningful constructs social rank familism and ethnicity These constructs are used to develop a typology of social areas which serves as the basis for developing an understanding of and further hypotheses about urban social structure Not only does this analysis present a self contained study of Australia s second largest metropolis but detailed maps and statistical appendixes provide a benchmark for future social investigations into the urban scene on subjects such as political preference immigrant adjustment poverty crime delinquency and urban planning

Of Labour and Liberty Race Mathews, 2018-02-28 What will the future of work social freedom and employment look like In an era of increased job insecurity and social dislocation is it possible to reshape economics along democratic lines in a way that genuinely serves the interests of the community Of Labour and Liberty arises from Race Mathews s half century and more of political and public policy involvement It responds to evidence of a precipitous decline in active citizenship resulting from a loss of confidence in politics politicians parties and parliamentary democracy the rise of lying for hire lobbyism increasing concentration of capital in the hands of a wealthy few and corporate wrongdoing and criminality It also questions whether political democracy can survive indefinitely in the absence of economic democracy of labor hiring capital rather than capital labor It highlights the potential of the social teachings of the Catholic Church and the now largely forgotten Distributist political philosophy and program that originated from them as a means of bringing about a more equal just and genuinely democratic social order It describes and evaluates Australian attempts to give effect to Distributism with special reference to Victoria And with an optimistic view to future possibilities it documents the support and advocacy of Pope Francis and ownership by some 83 000 workers of the Mondragon cooperatives in Spain This book will interest scholars and students of Catholic social teaching history economics industrial relations and business and management Beyond the Black Stump Alan Mayne,2008
