Victor M. Corman

The Mental Machine A 21st Century Of Narrative Poems And Prose:

Encounters and Engagements between Economic and Cultural Geography Barney Warf, 2012-04-02 The intellectual renaissance of human geography has included a widespread engagement between its economic and cultural subdisciplines This volume adopts a variety of conceptual and empirical perspectives on the encounters between economic and cultural geographers It offers an introduction and 10 chapters by authors in a variety of national contexts to explicate issues such as the cultural turn in economic geography the cultural construction of economic geographic thought consumption gender everyday life commodity chain analysis trust networks the creative economy and tourism The volume contains empirical analyses utilizing both quantitative and qualitative approaches at spatial scales ranging from the individual to the global economy In illustrating how human geographers can ill afford to subscribe to the analytically false dichotomy between culture and the economy the book explicates how cultural and economic geography can be seamlessly integrated bringing them into a creative tension to their mutual benefit Johnson's New Universal Cyclopaedia: a Scientific and Popular Treasury of Useful Knowledge ,1879

Raging against the Mass-Schooling Machine Andrew Miller, 2016-12-27 The biggest danger for beginning teachers is to teach as they were taught In order to create teaching identities capable of resisting the mind numbing orthodoxies of the mass schooling machine beginning teachers need to interrogate the theories and practices that have shaped them as teachers Raging against the Mass Schooling Machine is a compelling autoethnographic account of one beginning teacher's struggle to transform his future teaching identity by unpacking the bruising encounters that shaped him as a student This is a must read book for all teachers wishing to teach against the grain The journey from student to teacher involves almost two decades of junior primary secondary and tertiary education Few of us critique this journey to see what emotional legacies and taken for granted assumptions we carry from one identity to the other If we remain unconscious of the social and cultural discourses and practices that have shaped and defined us as students and teachers we may unwittingly reproduce the inequalities prejudices and traumas we experienced or observed while growing up or resort to transmission teaching and authoritarian control because this is the formula of schooling most of us know Empowering education relies on teachers resisting these toxic scripts and becoming agents of change

Johnson's New Universal Cyclopædia: A-E ,1878 Mathilde Blind: Selected Fin-de-Siècle Poetry and Prose James Diedrick, 2021-11-12 Mathilde Blind's contributions to the New Woman and Decadent movements in the 1880s and 1890s placed her at the centre of fin de siècle literary culture She rose to prominence in the early 1870s both as an expert on and proponent of the poetry of Percy Bysshe Shelley and as one of the few women writers published in the Dark Blue 1871-73 an influential journal that featured the work of Britain's leading Pre-Raphaelites and aesthetes By the late 1880s she had established close associations with key figures of England's emergent Decadent communities from Vernon Lee and Rosamund Marriott Watson to Oscar Wilde and Arthur Symonds When her Dramas in Miniature appeared in 1891 she was fusing aestheticism and Decadence so distinctively in her poetry that Symons evoked Charles Baudelaire in calling the dramatic monologues in the volume Flowers of Evil. Her career thus highlights the connections between mid-Victorian aestheticism and late-century Decadence. It also serves as an important corrective to the male-focused narratives that long dominated accounts of these movements. In addition, and because Blind was born in Germany of Jewish parents and part of a community of exiled European radicals, her poetry and prose alike are characterized by a transnational cosmopolitan outlook that ranges across national borders and consistently engages with Continental writers and ideas. This new edition for the first time brings together the three major volumes of poetry Blind published between 1889 and 1895 alongside a critical introduction and explanatory notes. Because she was also an active reviewer and essayist throughout her career, it includes a selection of her reviews as well as her essay Shelley's View of Nature Contrasted with Darwin's, which serves as an important supplement to her 1889 volume The Ascent of Man. The edition also features a selection of critical responses to Blind's writing by leading late-Victorian poets and critics.

Johnson's New Universal Cyclopaedia: A-E Frederick Augustus Porter Barnard, 1877 Johnson's New Universal Cyclopædia: a Scientific and Popular Treasury of Useful Knowledge Frederick Augustus Porter Barnard, 1876 Johnson's (revised) Universal Cyclopaedia, 1886 Johnson's Universal Cyclopaedia, 1888

The Typewriter Century Martyn Lyons, 2021-02-01 This book captures the intensity of the relationship between writers and their typewriters from the 1880s when the machine was first commercialized to the 1980s when word processing superseded it. Drawing on examples from the United States, Britain, Europe, and Australia, The Typewriter Century focuses on celebrity writers including Henry James, Jack Kerouac, Agatha Christie, Georges Simenon, and Erle Stanley Gardner, who wrote prolifically and mechanically, developing routines in which typing, handwriting, and dictation were each allotted important functions. The typewriter de-personalized the text; the office typewriter bureaucratized it. At the same time, some authors found a new and disturbing distance between themselves and their compositions, while others believed the typewriter facilitated spontaneous and automatic typing. The Typewriter Century provides a cultural history of the typewriter, outlining the ways in which it can be considered an agent of change as well as demonstrating how it influenced all writers, canonical and otherwise.
