Gutenberg, Man of the Millennium Wolfgang Dobras, 2000 The New East End Michael Young, Kate Gavron, Geoff Dench, 2011-09-30 This is non fiction Brick Lane what life is really like around Brick Lane and the East End One of the most influential non fiction books of the 1950s was Family and Kinship in East London which examined in great depth the life of people living in the dockland areas that had been so comprehensively destroyed in the blitz What has happened since In the 50 years since the whole area has gone into terrible decline has been comprehensively redeveloped sometimes more than once and most important of all has seen the traditional families largely leave to be replaced by a huge influx of Bangladeshi families many of whom are now into the second generation What are their lives like How is the community coping with the radical change What are relations like between the old white population and the new Asian population Does government policy affect racism Here the authors show startlingly that housing policies have made race relations much worse and must be changed This will be very controversial The book is a comprehensive examination of life in one of the most intriguing parts of England but it stands for all Britain and indeed everywhere in the world with large new immigrant populations

Tapestry Weaving Joanne Soroka, 2015-05-31 Tapestries were among the most prestigious of art forms created for the mightiest in the land and valued for centuries Despite its illustrious history tapestry weaving is actually a simple technique that requires little equipment or expenditure and can be done anywhere Written by a prominent tapestry weaver this lavishly illustrated book gently leads you through the whole process with detailed diagrams and exciting work by contemporary weavers It will be useful to the absolute beginner but experienced weavers will also find new ideas and techniques to tempt and inspire them The book includes a step by step guide to setting up a small frame loom and starting to weave basic and more advanced techniques and how to create shapes and textures advice on taking your work into the third dimension whether as relief or fully sculptural information on the qualities of different materials and how they can be used to create the effects you want and design ideas for tapestry and how to follow supplied designs This will be an essential source book for experienced and novice weavers and is beautifully illustrated with 190 colour illustrations and diagrams

The Great Tapestry of Scotland Alistair Moffat, 2013-10-06 The brainchild of bestselling author Alexander McCall Smith historian Alistair Moffat and artist Andrew Crummy the Great Tapestry of Scotland is an outstanding celebration of thousands of years of Scottish history and achievement from the end of the last Ice Age to Dolly the Sheep and Andy Murray's Wimbledon victory in 2013. This book tells the story of this unique undertaking from its original conception and creation by teams of dedicated stitchers to its grand unveiling at the Scottish Parliament in 2013, its subsequent touring and the creation of its permanent home in the Scottish Borders.

Threads of Life Clare Hunter, 2019-10-15. This globe-spanning history of sewing and embroidery culture and protest is an astonishing feat, richly textured and moving. The Sunday Times UK. In 1970s Argentina, mothers marched in headscarves embroidered with the names of their disappeared children. In Tudor England, when Mary Queen of Scots was under house arrest, her needlework carried her messages to the outside world. From the political propaganda of the Bayeux Tapestry to World War I soldiers coping with PTSD and the maps sewn by schoolgirls in the New World, to the AIDS quilt, Hmong story clothes, and pink pussyhats, women and men have used the language of sewing to make their voices heard even in the most desperate of circumstances. Threads of Life is a chronicle of identity, memory, power, and politics told through the stories of needlework. Clare Hunter, master of the craft, threads her own narrative as she takes us over centuries and across continents from medieval France to contemporary Mexico and the United States, and from a POW camp in Singapore to a family attic in Scotland, to celebrate the universal beauty and power of sewing.

The Medieval Crossbow Stuart Ellis-Gorman, 2022-07-20. An in-depth illustrated history and technical study of this iconic weapon of the Middle Ages. The crossbow is an iconic weapon of the Middle Ages and alongside the longbow, one of the most effective ranged weapons of the pre-gunpowder era. Unfortunately, despite its general fame, it has been decades since an in-depth history of the medieval crossbow has been published, which is why Stuart Ellis-Gorman's detailed, accessible, and highly illustrated study is so valuable. The Medieval Crossbow approaches the history of the crossbow from two directions. The first is a technical study of the design and construction of the medieval crossbow, the many different kinds of crossbows used during the Middle Ages, and finally a consideration of the relationship between crossbows and art. The second half of the book explores the history of the crossbow from its origins in ancient China to its decline in sixteenth-century Europe. Along the way, it explores the challenges in deciphering the crossbow's early medieval history as well as its prominence in warfare and sport shooting in the High and Later Middle Ages. This fascinating book brings together the work of a wide range of accomplished crossbow scholars and incorporates the author's own original research to create an account of the medieval crossbow that will appeal to anyone looking to gain an insight into one of the most important weapons of the Middle Ages.

Textile Production and Consumption in the Ancient Near East Marie-Louise Nosch, Henriette Koefoed, Eva Andersson Strand, 2013-01-11. In the past, textile production was a key part of all ancient societies. The Ancient Near East stands out in this respect with the overwhelming amount of documentation, both in terms of raw materials, line of production, and the distribution of finished products. The thirteen intriguing chapters in Textile Production and Consumption in the Ancient Near East describe the developments and changes from household to standardised, industrialised, and centralised productions.

which take place in the region They discuss the economic social and cultural impact of textiles on ancient society through the application of textile tool studies experimental testing context studies and epigraphical as well as iconographical sources Together they demonstrate that the textile industries production technology consumption and innovations are crucial to and therefore provide an in depth view of ancient societies during this period Geographically the contributions cover Anatolia the Levant Syria the Assyrian heartland Sumer and Egypt

Clothing the New World Church Maya Stanfield-Mazzi, 2021-02-15

The book provides the first broad survey of church textiles of Spanish America and demonstrates that while overlooked textiles were a vital part of visual culture in the Catholic Church When Catholic churches were built in the New World in the sixteenth century they were furnished with rich textiles known in Spanish as church clothing These textile ornaments covered churches altars stairs floors and walls Vestments clothed priests and church attendants and garments clothed statues of saints The value attached to these textiles their constant use and their stunning visual qualities suggest that they played a much greater role in the creation of the Latin American Church than has been previously recognized In Clothing the New World Church Maya Stanfield Mazzi provides the first comprehensive survey of church adornment with textiles addressing how these works helped establish Christianity in Spanish America and expand it over four centuries Including more than 180 photos this book examines both imported and indigenous textiles used in the church compiling works that are now scattered around the world and reconstructing their original contexts Stanfield Mazzi delves into the hybrid or mestizo qualities of these cloths and argues that when local weavers or embroiderers in the Americas created church textiles they did so consciously with the understanding that they were creating a new church through their work The chapters are divided by textile type including embroidery featherwork tapestry painted cotton and cotton lace In the first chapter on woven silk we see how a silk standard was established on the basis of priestly preferences for this imported cloth The second chapter explains how Spanish style embroidery was introduced in the New World and mastered by local artisans The following chapters show that in select times and places spectacular local textile types were adapted for the church reflecting ancestral aesthetic and ideological patterns Clothing the New World Church makes a significant contribution to the fields of textile studies art history Church history and Latin American studies and to interdisciplinary scholarship on material culture and indigenous agency in the New World
