The Mind Of Africa The Nature Of Human Society:

The Mind of Africa Abraham, W.E., 2015-06-12 William Abraham studied Philosophy at the University of Ghana and even more Philosophy at Oxford University Thereafter he gained permission to take part in the competitive examination and interview for a fellowship at All Souls College The examination was once described with some exaggeration as the hardest exam in the world It included a three hour essay Following his success in becoming the first African fellow of All Souls his interest in African politics quickly developed into a Pan African perspective The Mind of Africa written while he was still at All Souls was a fruit of that enlarged perspective After several years as a Fellow he had occasion to visit Ghana in 1962 There Kwame Nkrumah then President of Ghana successfully persuaded him to return to Ghana to teach at the University of Ghana Legon and he subsequently resigned from All Souls In 1968 he went to the United States as a visiting professor This was followed by invitations to teach at various academic institutions there including Berkeley and Stanford He subsequently settled in California where he continued to teach and research philosophy in the University of California at Santa Cruz until his retirement The Mind of Africa appeared at a time when a number of African countries were obtaining or fighting for their political freedom from their colonial rulers and becoming independent nations and expecting to build new societies in accordance with their own visions and conceptions though not necessarily jettisoning all the features of their colonial heritage Building new societies requires appropriate ideologies and philosophies fashioned within the crucible of their cultural and historical experiences Thus the relation between ideology and society is taken up at the very outset of the book The Mind of Africa is important for Africa s future and identity

Wonderfully entertaining Michael McGirr Sydney Morning Herald I am absolutely in awe of this book Hugh Mackay AO Almost everyone thinks they have one but nobody knows what it is For thousands of years the soul was an organ an entity something that was part of all of us that survived the death of the body and ventured to the underworld or to heaven or hell The soul could be saved condemned tortured bought And then mysteriously the soul disappeared The Enlightenment called it the mind And today neuroscientists demonstrate that the mind is the creation of the brain The religious soul lives on in the minds of the faithful while the secular soul means whatever you want it to mean In The Soul A History of the Human Mind critically acclaimed historian Paul Ham embarks on a journey that has never been attempted to restore the idea of the soul to the human story and to show how belief in and beliefs arising from the soul mind have animated and driven the history of humankind The Soul is much more than a mesmerizing narrative and uniquely accessible way of explaining our story It transforms our understanding of how history works It persuasively demonstrates that the beliefs of the soul mind are the engines of human history Teacher And Education In A Developing So Sarita Aggarwal C/O Jca, 2010
