The Power of Labelling Rosalind Eyben, Joy Moncrieffe, 2013-09-05 The Power of Labelling illuminates a fundamental and intriguing dimension of social and political life Striking cases from a range of policy contexts generate eyeopening analyses of labelling s causes and consequences uses and abuses and of alternatives in thinking and relating DES GASPER INSTITUTE OF SOCIAL STUDIES THE HAGUE The authors convincingly and often vividly explain how the unavoidable framings and labellings of the objects of policy secrete relations of power which can obscure as much as they reveal and often lead in policy itself to perverse outcomes Their detail is riveting their analyses persuasive what they suggest realistic and deeply sensible This immensely readable collection is indispensable for anyone who wants to think about how they think about development and should be forced on all who don t GEOFFREY HAWTHORN PROFESSOR OF INTERNATIONAL POLITICS UNIVERSITY OF CAMBRIDGE This is an essential book not only for those interested in understanding the development industry but also for development practitioners It discusses key questions concerning the ways in which knowledge is generated by development agencies and reaffirms the importance of understanding who categorizes people why and how R L STIRRAT PROFESSOR OF SOCIAL ANTHROPOLOGY UNIVERSITY OF SUSSEX Very important Martin Kalungu Banda Oxfam GB What does it mean to be part of the mass known as The Poor What visions are conjured up in our minds when someone is labelled Muslim What assumptions do we make about their needs values and politics How do we react individually and as a society Who develops the labels what power do they carry and how do such labels affect how people are treated This timely book tackles the critical and controversial issue of how people are labelled and categorized and how their problems are framed and dealt with Drawing on vast international experience and current theory the authors examine how labels are constituted and applied by a variety of actors including development policy makers practitioners and researchers The book exposes the intense and complex politics involved in processes of labelling and highlights how the outcomes of labelling can undermine stated development goals Importantly one of the book s principal objectives is to suggest how policy makers and professionals can tackle negative forms of labelling and encourage processes of counter labelling to enhance poverty reduction and human rights and to tackle issues of race relations and global security The Afterword encapsulates these ideas and provides a good basis for reflection further debate and action Thoughts on images : a philosophical evaluation Jarmo Valkola, 2012 We Are All Hypnotized: The Media's Hidden Power Pasquale De Marco, 2025-05-01 The media is a powerful force in our lives It shapes our beliefs values and behaviors It can inform us educate us and entertain us But it can also manipulate us deceive us and control us In this groundbreaking book Pasquale De Marco reveals the hidden power of the media and how it hypnotizes us into believing and doing things that are not in our best interests Drawing on cutting edge research in psychology neuroscience and media studies Pasquale De Marco shows how the media uses a variety of techniques to persuade us including Repetition and subliminal messaging The media

bombards us with messages often without us even realizing it These messages can influence our thoughts feelings and behaviors even if we are not consciously aware of them Emotional appeals and storytelling The media often uses emotional appeals and storytelling to connect with us on a personal level This can make us more likely to believe and accept the messages that are being communicated Bandwagon and snob appeal The media often tries to persuade us by making us feel like we are part of a group or that we are different from others This can make us more likely to conform to the opinions and behaviors that are being promoted Fear and guilt appeals The media often uses fear and guilt appeals to motivate us to take action This can be effective but it can also be manipulative and harmful Pasquale De Marco also shows how the media is used to manipulate us politically economically and socially He argues that the media is not simply a neutral conveyor of information but a powerful tool that can be used to control our thoughts feelings and behaviors This book is a wake up call It is a call for us to become more aware of the media's power and to be more critical of the messages that we are receiving It is a call for us to take back control of our lives and to create a more just and equitable world If you like this book write a review on google books
