The Message A Novel:

The Message Samuel Bauserman,2001-11-26 One civilization sends a message into space Civilizations on two other planets receive it and react in their way Characters discuss overpopulation religion evolution and others This is written to show the state of the environment and how to preserve it No specific dates are given and most measurements are in metric units

The Complete Idiot's Guide to Writing Christian Fiction Ron Benrey,2007-12-04 The Christian fiction genre has been around since the late sixties but the Left Behind series made it explode This book walks you through the genre what it is and isn't how plot integrates with a Christian message how to approach edgy subjects how to navigate Christian and mainstream publishers and more Coverage includes discussion of everything from mystery and romance to historical and young adult

Literary Fiction Geir Farnen,2014-01-30 Insofar as literary theory has addressed the issue of literature as a means of communication and the function of literary fiction opinions have been sharply divided indicating that the elementary foundations of literary theory and criticism still need clarifying Many of the classical problems that literary theory has been grappling with from Aristotle to our time are still waiting for a satisfactory solution Based on a new cognitive model of literature as communication Farnen systematically explains how literary fiction works providing new solutions to a wide range of literary issues like intention function evaluation delimitation of the literary work as such fictionality suspense and the roles of author and narrator along with such narratological problems as voice point of view and duration Covering a wide range of literary issues central to literary theory offering new theories while also summarising the field as it stands Literary Fiction will be a valuable guide and resource for students and scholars of the theory of literature

An Introduction to the English Novel Arnold Kettle,2016-03-17 First published in 1953 this book forms the second part of Arnold Kettle's An Introduction to the English Novel In this second part Kettle builds a discussion of the modern English novel around the study of various books that have a more than casual significance in its development He begins with an analysis of James Hardy and Butler three late Victorian writers whose work points forward to the major preoccupations of twentieth century novelists In his discussion of a dozen or so of these points the author examines their progress in the long struggle of the novelist to see life steadily and whole and points out some of the problems and hazards that beset the writer still The selection both of novelists and their work is excellent it is both shrewd and witty The Times Literary Supplement Altogether this is a refreshing challenging and original work wholly adult in tone and never pedantic or dull The Guardian

The Chilean Dictatorship Novel Helene Carol Weldt-Basson,2025-11-04 A survey of classic literature from Chile born of the repressive Pinochet dictatorship in the seventies Though the civil rights abuses by the Pinochet dictatorship in Chile 1973 1990 were later recognized by reparations and truth commissions the difficult emotions suffered by the victims and their families were often pushed into the background or out of the national conversation entirely In response novelists began writing the feelings experienced during the dictatorship into their books In The Chilean Dictatorship Novel Weldt Basson examines fifteen novels and one testimony written on the topic of dictatorship to illustrate how these Chilean narratives center on affect and emotions Each chapter focuses on a different emotion feelings of loss because of a father s abandonment and spatial injustice caused by the neoliberal urbanization of Santiago despair articulated through tragic romances and affective landscapes left wing nostalgia and melancholia communicated through allegory feelings of abjection caused by torture and betrayal and the creation of affect through violent events aggressive child play and sexual torture Through a close look at the work of Jos Donoso Ariel Dorfman Diamela Eltit Carlos Franz and Nona Fernandez among others Weldt Basson effectively argues that by inspiring emotion and creating empathy within readers the authors of these books instill a drive in the readers for ongoing social justice advocacy thereby transforming the process of reading into a platform for future action Weldt Basson s landmark study will serve as a basis for the future study of Latin American literature for decades to come Don DeLillo Peter Boxall,2006-04-18 One of the few available books of criticism on the topic this monograph presents the fullest account to date of Don DeLillo s writing situating his oeuvre within a wider analysis of the condition of contemporary fiction and dealing with his entire work in relation to contemporary political and economic concerns for the first time Providing a lucid and nuanced reading of DeLillo s ambivalent engagement with American and European culture as well as with modernism and postmodernism and globalization and terrorism this fascinating volume interrogates the critical and aesthetic capacities of fiction in what is an age of global capitalism and US cultural imperialism The Chinese Novel at the Turn of the Century Milena Dolezelova-Velingerova,1980-12-15 This collection of essays reveals the dynamic role of the late Qing novel in the process of modernization of Chinese fiction Substantial changes in various aspects of the Chinese novel at the turn of the century demonstrated by structural analyses of several representative novels suggest that the evolution of modern Chinese fiction was a more complex process than a simple imitation of Western literatures The results challenge the scholarly consensus that modern Chinese fiction resulted from a radical change brought about by the May Fourth Movement in 1919 It is demonstrated rather that the transformation had already begun in the first decade of the twentieth century and that the conspicuous changes in Chinese fiction of the 1920s represent a culmination rather than a beginning of the modern evolutionary process The book consists of nine studies which analyse the late Qing novel in its general and specific aspects The introduction and first essay explain how social changes conditioned cultural and literary changes during the period and how the resultant new theory of fiction generated new concepts of a politically engaged novel The two following studies develop a general statement of narrative structures and devices derived from structural analyses of seven outstanding late Qing novels The last six articles examine particular novels in detail focusing on the specific fictional techniques which predominate in each This is the first volume in a new series Modern East Asian Studies The Coupling Convention : Sex, Text, and Tradition in Black Women's Fiction Ann duCille Associate Professor of English and African American Studies Wesleyan University,1993-10-19 What does the tradition of marriage mean for people who have historically been deprived of its legal status Generally thought of as a convention of the white middle class the marriage plot has received little attention from critics of African American literature In this study Ann duCille uses texts such as Nella Larsen s Quicksand 1928 and Zora Neale Hurston s Their Eyes Were Watching God 1937 to demonstrate that the African American novel like its European and Anglo American counterparts has developed around the marriage plot what she calls the coupling convention Exploring the relationship between racial ideology and literary and social conventions duCille uses the coupling convention to trace the historical development of the African American women s novel She demonstrates the ways in which black women appropriated this novelistic device as a means of expressing and reclaiming their own identity More than just a study of the marriage tradition in black women s fiction however The Coupling Convention takes up and takes on many different meanings of tradition It challenges the notion of a single black literary tradition or of a single black feminist literary canon grounded in specifically black female language and experience as it explores the ways in which white and black male and female mainstream and marginalized traditions and canons have influenced and cross fertilized each other Much more than a period study The Coupling Convention spans the period from 1853 to 1948 addressing the vital questions of gender subjectivity race and the canon that inform literary study today In this original work duCille offers a new paradigm for reading black women s fiction

Reading Fiction: Opening the Text Peter Childs, 2001-04-03 In what ways does the opening of a novel relate to the narrative that unfolds from it What are the different approaches to close reading a page of prose fiction How does reading a text for a second time affect our understanding of the significance of its opening In this unique book Peter Childs discusses the opening lines of 24 widely studied literary texts from the eighteenth to the twentieth centuries These analyses amount to both an overview of modes of fiction over the last 300 years and also a guide to techniques of close reading The extracts are taken from the work of novelists ranging from Jane Austen to Salman Rushdie This stimulating and illuminating book will be a useful text for undergraduates studying the novel and involved in critical appreciation and close textual analysis Texts discussed Robinson Crusoe Tristram Shandy Pride and Prejudice Frankenstein Jane Eyre Wuthering Heights Great Expectations Silas Marner Tess of the D'Urbervilles The Turn of the Screw Heart of Darkness The Good Soldier A Portrait of the Artist as a Young Man The Life and Death of Harriet Frean A Passage to India Mrs Dalloway Brave New World The Road to Wigan Pier Goodbye to Berlin Under the Volcano Wide Sargasso Sea The Bloody Chamber Shame and The Buddha of Suburbia

Detective Fiction and the Rise of the Japanese Novel, 1880-1930 Satoru Saito, 2020-03-17 In Detective Fiction and the Rise of the Japanese Novel Satoru Saito sheds light on the deep structural and conceptual similarities between detective fiction and the novel in prewar Japan Arguing that the interactions between the two genres were not marginal occurrences but instead critical moments of literary engagement Saito demonstrates how detective fiction provided Japanese authors with the necessary frameworks through which to examine and critique the nature and implications of Japan s literary formations and its modernizing society Through a series of close readings of literary texts

by canonical writers of Japanese literature and detective fiction including Tsubouchi Shoyo Natsume Soseki Shimazaki Toson Sato Haruo Kuroiwa Ruiko and Edogawa Ranpo Saito explores how the detective story functioned to mediate the tenuous relationships between literature and society as well as between subject and authority that made literary texts significant as political acts By foregrounding the often implicit and contradictory strategies of literary texts choice of narrative forms symbolic mappings and intertextual evocations among others this study examines in detail the intricate interactions between detective fiction and the novel that shaped the development of modern Japanese literature
