healthy night's rest      Manila Gambit John Zeugner, 2015-10-14 Paul Snell novice reporter gets assigned a weekly column on chess mostly because of his faux filial attachment to the Hane Tribune's owner Waldo Turner. In return Snell promises to attend to and probably marry Waldo's fragile unhinged niece Pamela Snow. The unlikely couple soon enough latch onto American chess prodigy Mikey Spendip and his mother Vera as they ascend the ladder of tournament chess. During the summer of 1980 at the Interzonal Finals in Manila Philippines Spendip is persuaded to aid an uprising against dictator Ferdinand Marcos by deliberately losing a crucial match. But that gesture slips into a gory comic fiasco. The novel is an ironic commentary on the nature of chess, chance and love in revolutionary circumstances      Cruising World, 1999-01

RETRIBUTION William McChesney, 2016-02-11 This adventure begins with a two family vacation. One family will be saying goodbye to their son as he has been accepted to West Point. The other family's son will be attending the University in Albany. One is white the other is a Negro and this is the middle of the nineteenth century. Best friends from birth and both trying to make a difference in an improbable time in our nation's history. The two friends try to maintain their relationship and do the best they can even through the Civil War. Colonel Christian who had distinguished himself at both West Point and the Artillery Corps gets assigned to oversee reconstruction in Georgia. This seems like a dream come true as his best friend is now an educator and an ordained minister. He's a perfect candidate for helping with the arduous task of educating his race in the south. Life seems to be getting good but all hell is about to break loose and the colonel has some unbelievable life changing decisions to make      The Weather Health Handbook Joe R Eagleman, 2023-11-29 Have you ever wondered why

Sharp Early American Migration takes place in September 1802 as Benjamin Joseph Sharp s wife of twelve years is about to give birth to their third child Mary Elisabeth had a difficult delivery with their last child Benjamin Joseph Jr and he wanted to get Doc Henson at the first sign that the baby was coming Mary Sue Sharp arrived that evening kicking and screaming ready to discover her new world Ben was a gunsmith and had always dreamed of building a new kind of gun but his brothers had fought the idea So he worked with his friend Nate to fulfill his dream they made six of the special guns which he took with him on his trip out west He loved to tell stories of the west to his wife and children they were so interested in his stories of the life that they could have if they ventured to the other side of the Missouri River Ben was a farmer at heart and longed to have his own place so he packed his family up and moved them out west to find a better life for them      MAC Virginia

Freytag MacGeorge,2012-08-20 To tell this story I have to start somewhere These letters and there are almost 300 of them have been in three boxes all tied together with a double wrap of cord They have been tied up in those boxes for over fi fty years a few of the early letters are fi fty nine years old One box was a four pound heart shaped Fanny Farmer candy box One of the white gift shirt boxes contained a white satin night gown a blue print rayon dress which I had made and a small knitted very dainty looking blue baby sweater which I also had made Once I tied them together I never looked at them again until now and I really regret that I did not do it sooner There are so many questions I would ask but now it is too late      War

Games James Park Sloan,2020-08-20 This is a wise dryly humorous and perfectly conceived novel about a man during the years of the Vietnam War The protagonist leaves college to enlist in the army and is sent to Southeast Asia He is a man curiously beset by small cares He worries about his teeth Venereal disease may cost him his combat tour so he endures it in silence His stoicism rewarded he is like a passive observer in the mire of Vietnam in bureaucracy and battle in the depths of callousness and fear When sent on a mission at last he commits the most barbarous or the most honorable act possible in the war War games honor duty reality The answers he finds surprising even to himself are revealed in a succession of events which force him toward a crisis of decision His response to the crisis may well be a definitive comment on the modern situation

North on the Wing Bruce M. Beehler,2018-02-06 The story of an ornithologist s journey to trace the spring migration of songbirds from the southern border of the United States through the heartland and into Canada In late March 2015 ornithologist Bruce M Beehler set off on a solo four month trek to track songbird migration and the northward progress of spring through America Traveling via car canoe and bike and on foot Beehler followed woodland warblers and other Neotropical songbird species from the southern border of Texas where the birds first arrive after their winter sojourns in South America and the Caribbean northward through the Mississippi drainage to its headwaters in Minnesota and onward to their nesting grounds in the north woods of Ontario In North on the Wing Beehler describes both the epic migration of songbirds across the country and the gradual dawning of springtime through the U S heartland the blossoming of wildflowers the chorusing of frogs the leafing out of forest canopies and also tells the stories of the people and institutions dedicated to studying and conserving the critical habitats and processes of spring songbird migration Inspired in part by Edwin Way Teale's landmark 1951 book North with the Spring this book part travelogue part field journal and part environmental and cultural history is a fascinating first hand account of a once in a lifetime journey It engages readers in the wonders of spring migration and serves as a call for the need to conserve restore and expand bird habitats to preserve them for future generations of both birds and humans
