Slim's Table Mitchell Duneier, 2015-12-21 A richly detailed and highly compassionate ethnographic study of a core group of black men who daily frequent Valois a cafeteria in Chicago's Hyde Park. A Javier Trevi o Humanity Society At the Valois See Your Food cafeteria on Chicago's South Side black and white men gather over cups of coffee and steam table food Mitchell Duneier a sociologist spent four years at the Valois writing this moving profile of the black men who congregate at Slim's Table Praised as a marvelous study of those who should not be forgotten by The Wall Street Journal Slim's Table helps demolish the narrow sociological picture of black men and simple media reinforced stereotypes In between is a respectable citizenry too often ignored and little understood Slim's Table is an astonishment Duneier manages to fling open windows of perception into what it means to be working class black how a caring community can proceed from the most ordinary transactions all the while smashing media induced stereotypes of the races and race relations Citation for Chicago Sun Times Chicago Book of the Year Award An instant classic of ethnography that will provoke debate and provide insight for years to come Michael Eric Dyson Chicago Tribune Mr Duneier sees the subjects of his study as people and he sees the scale of their lives as fully human rather than as diminished versions of grander lives lived elsewhere by people of another color A welcome antidote to trends in both journalism and sociology Roger Wilkins The New York Times Book Review Slim's Table Mitchell Duneier, 1994-05-28 At the Valois See Your Food cafeteria on Chicago's South Side black and white men gather over cups of coffee and steam table food Mitchell Duneier a sociologist spent four years at the Valois writing this moving profile of the black men who congregate at Slim's Table Praised as a marvelous study of those who should not be forgotten by the Wall Street Journal Slim's Table helps demolish the narrow sociological picture of black men and simple media reinforced stereotypes In between is a respectable citizenry too often ignored and little understood Slim's Table is an astonishment Duneier manages to fling open windows of perception into what it means to be working class black how a caring community can proceed from the most ordinary transactions all the while smashing media induced stereotypes of the races and race relations Citation for Chicago Sun Times Chicago Book of the Year Award An instant classic of ethnography that will provoke debate and provide insight for years to come Michael Eric Dyson Chicago Tribune Mr Duneier sees the subjects of his study as people and he sees the scale of their lives as fully human rather than as diminished versions of grander lives lived elsewhere by people of another color A welcome antidote to trends in both journalism and sociology Roger Wilkins New York Times Book Review Slim's Table Mitchell Duneier, 1994 Slim's Table Mitchell Duneier, 1996-08-01 White Logic, White Methods Tukufo Zuberi, Eduardo Bonilla-Silva, 2008-05-02 In this collection of essays the authors examine how racial considerations have affected the way social science is conducted how issues are framed and data is analyzed With an assemblage of leading scholars White Logic White Methods explores the possibilities and necessary dethroning of current social research practices and demands a complete overhaul of current methods towards multicultural and pluralist approach to what we know think and question      Fathering from the Margins Aasha M. Abdill,2018-06-12 Despite a decade of sociological research documenting black fathers significant level of engagement with their children stereotypes of black men as deadbeat dads still shape popular perceptions and scholarly discourse In Fathering from the Margins sociologist Aasha M Abdill draws on four years of fieldwork in low income predominantly black Bedford Stuyvesant Brooklyn to dispel these destructive assumptions She considers the obstacles faced and the strategies used by black men with children Abdill presents qualitative and quantitative evidence that confirms the increasing presence of black fathers in their communities arguing that changing social norms about gender roles in black families have shifted fathering behaviors Black men in communities such as Bed Stuy still face social and structural disadvantages including disproportionate unemployment and incarceration with significant implications for family life Against this backdrop black fathers attempt to reconcile contradictory beliefs about what makes one a good father and what makes one a respected man by developing different strategies for expressing affection and providing parental support Black men s involvement with their children is affected by the attitudes of their peers the media and especially the women of their families and communities from the grandmothers who often become gatekeepers to involvement in a child s life to the female dominated sectors of childcare primary school and family service provision Abdill shows how supporting black men in their quest to be and be seen as family men is the key to securing not only their children s well being but also their own      Funk the Clock Rahsaan Mahadeo,2024-05-15 Funk the Clock is about those said to be emblematic of the future yet denied a place in time Hence this book is both an invitation and provocation for Black youth to give the finger to the hands of time while inviting readers to follow their lead In revealing how time is racialized how race is temporalized and how racism takes time Rahsaan Mahadeo makes clear why conventional sociological theories of time are both empirically and theoretically unsustainable and more importantly why they need to be funkyed up with Through his study of a youth center in Minneapolis Mahadeo provides examples of Black youth constructing alternative temporalities that center their lived experiences and ensure their worldviews tastes and culture are most relevant and up to date In their stories exists the potential to stretch the sociological imagination to make the familiar i e time strange Funk the Clock forges new directions in the study of race and time by upending what we think we know about time while centering Black youth as key collaborators in rewriting knowledge as we know it      The Wiley-Blackwell Companion to Sociology George Ritzer,2016-09-26 Featuring a collection of original chapters by leading and emerging scholars The Wiley Blackwell Companion to Sociology presents a comprehensive and balanced overview of the major topics and emerging trends in the discipline of sociology today Features original chapters contributed by an international cast of leading and emerging sociology scholars Represents the most innovative and state of the art thinking about the discipline Includes a general introduction and section introductions with chapters summaries by the editor      Prejudice in Politics Lawrence D. Bobo,Mia Tuan,2006-04-15 The authors explore a lengthy controversy surrounding fishing hunting and gathering rights of Chippewa

Indians in Wisconsin The book uses a carefully designed survey of public opinion to explore the dynamics of prejudice and political contestation and to further our understanding of how and why racial prejudice enters into politics in the U S

Ethnic Modernisms D. Konzett, 2002-11-08 This study explores a new understanding of modernism and ethnicity as put forward in the transnational and diasporic writings of Anzia Yeziarska Zora Neale Hurston and Jean Rhys In its selection of three modernists from apparently different cultural backgrounds it is meant to make us rethink the role of modernism in terms of ethnicity and displacement Konzett critiques the traditional understanding of the monocultural ethnic identity often highlighted in the studies of these writers and argues that all three writers are better understood as ironic narrators of diaspora and movement and as avant garde modernists As a result they offer an alternative aesthetics of modernism which is centered around the innovative narration of displacement Her analysis of the complexities of language and form and impact of the complex and ambiguous formal styles of the three writers on the history of their reception is a model of the effective integration of formalist historicist and theoretical perspectives in literary criticism

Rooted in Place William W. Falk, 2004 Through oral history Falk sociology U of Maryland College Park tells the story of those who stayed behind as millions of African Americans left the South in the Great Migration for what they hoped would be a better life in the North Members of an extended family in the Georgia South Carolina lowlands talk about schooling kinship work religion race and their love of the place where their family has lived for generations The conversational ethnography argues that a link between race and place in the area helps explain African American loyalty to it for those who stayed put a numerical majority deep cultural roots and longstanding webs of social connection have outweighed racism and economic disadvantages Annotation 2004 Book News Inc Portland OR booknews com The SAGE Handbook of Identities Margaret

Wetherell, Chandra Talpade Mohanty, 2010-04-14 Increasingly identities are the site for interdisciplinary initiatives and identity research is at the heart of many transdisciplinary research centres around the world No single social science discipline owns identity research which makes it a difficult topic to categorize The SAGE Handbook of Identities systematizes this complex field by incorporating its interdisciplinary character to provide a comprehensive overview of its themes in contemporary research while still acknowledging the historical and philosophical significance of the concept of identity Drawing on a global scholarship the Handbook has four parts Part 1 Frameworks presents the main theoretical and methodological perspectives in identities research Part 2 Formations covers the major formative forces for identities such as culture globalisation migratory patterns biology and so on Part 3 Categories reviews research on the core social categories which are central to identity such as ethnicity gender sexuality disability and social class and intersections between these Part 4 Sites and Context develops a series of case studies of crucial sites and contexts where identity is at stake such as social movements relationships and family life work places and environments and citizenship

New Directions in Criminological Theory Steve Hall, Simon Winlow, 2012-06-25 This edited collection brings together established global scholars and new thinkers to outline fresh concepts and theoretical perspectives for criminological research and analysis in the 21st century Criminologists from the UK USA Canada and Australia evaluate the current condition of criminological theory and present students and researchers with new and revised ideas from the realms of politics culture and subjectivity to unpack crime and violence in the precarious age of global neoliberalism These ideas range from the micro realm of the personality disorder to the macro realm of global power crime Rejecting or modifying the orthodox notion that crime and harm are largely the products of criminalisation and control systems these scholars bring causes and conditions back into play in an eclectic yet thematic way that should inspire students and researchers to once again investigate the reasons why some individuals and groups elect to harm others rather than seek sociability This collection will inspire new criminologists to both look outside their discipline for new ideas to import and to create new ideas within their discipline to reinvigorate it and further strengthen its ability to explain the crimes and harms that we see around us today This book will be of particular interest to academics and both undergraduate and postgraduate students in the field of criminology especially to those looking for theoretical concepts and frameworks for dissertations theses and research reports The City Reader Richard T. LeGates, Frederic Stout, 2015-07-16 The sixth edition of the highly successful The City Reader juxtaposes the very best classic and contemporary writings on the city to provide the comprehensive mapping of the terrain of Urban Studies and Planning old and new The City Reader is the anchor volume in the Routledge Urban Reader Series and is now integrated with all ten other titles in the series This edition has been extensively updated and expanded to reflect the latest thinking in each of the disciplinary areas included and in topical areas such as compact cities urban history place making sustainable urban development globalization cities and climate change the world city network the impact of technology on cities resilient cities cities in Africa and the Middle East and urban theory The new edition places greater emphasis on cities in the developing world globalization and the global city system of the future The plate sections have been revised and updated Sixty generous selections are included forty four from the fifth edition and sixteen new selections including three newly written exclusively for The City Reader The sixth edition keeps classic writings by authors such as Ebenezer Howard Ernest W Burgess LeCorbusier Lewis Mumford Jane Jacobs and Louis Wirth as well as the best contemporary writings of among others Peter Hall Manuel Castells David Harvey Saskia Sassen and Kenneth Jackson In addition to newly commissioned selections by Yasser Elshehawey Peter Taylor and Lawrence Vale new selections in the sixth edition include writings by Aristotle Peter Calthorpe Alberto Camarillo Filip DeBoeck Edward Glaeser David Owen Henri Pirenne The Project for Public Spaces Jonas Rabinovich and Joseph Lietman Doug Saunders and Bish Sanyal The anthology features general and section introductions as well as individual introductions to the selected articles introducing the authors providing context relating the selection to other selection and providing a bibliography for further study The sixth edition includes fifty plates in four plate sections substantially revised from the fifth edition The Racial Order Mustafa Emirbayer, Matthew Desmond, 2024-05-31

Proceeding from the bold and provocative claim that there never has been a comprehensive and systematic theory of race Mustafa Emirbayer and Matthew Desmond set out to reformulate how we think about this most difficult of topics in American life In The Racial Order they draw on Bourdieu Durkheim and Dewey to present a new theoretical framework for race scholarship Animated by a deep and reflexive intelligence the book engages the large and important issues of social theory today and along the way offers piercing insights into how race actually works in America Emirbayer and Desmond set out to examine how the racial order is structured how it is reproduced and sometimes transformed and how it penetrates into the innermost reaches of our racialized selves They also consider how and toward what end the racial order might be reconstructed In the end this project is not merely about race it is a theoretical reconsideration of the fundamental problems of order agency power and social justice The Racial Order is a challenging work of social theory institutional and cultural analysis and normative inquiry

Beyond Acting White Erin McNamara Horvat, Carla O'Connor, 2006-03-02 Beyond Acting White broadens the extant conversation on the Black White achievement gap that has been dominated by the notion that Blacks underperform in school because they fear being accused of acting white The authors elucidate the limitations of this explanation by pr

City, Street and Citizen Suzanne Hall, Suzanne M. Hall, 2012 How can we learn from a multicultural society if we don't know how to recognise it The contemporary city is more than ever a space for the intense convergence of diverse individuals who shift in and out of its urban terrains The city street is perhaps the most prosaic of the city's public parts allowing us a view of the very ordinary practices of life and livelihoods By attending to the expressions of conviviality and contestation City Street and Citizen offers an alternative notion of multiculturalism away from the ideological frame of nation and away from the moral imperative of community This book offers to the reader an account of the lived realities of allegiance participation and belonging from the base of a multi ethnic street in south London City Street and Citizen focuses on the question of whether local life is significant for how individuals develop skills to live with urban change and cultural and ethnic diversity To animate this question Hall has turned to a city street and its dimensions of regularity and propinquity to explore interactions in the small shop spaces along the Walworth Road The city street constitutes exchange and as such it provides us with a useful space to consider the broader social and political significance of contact in the day to day life of multicultural cities Grounded in an ethnographic approach this book will be of interest to academics and students in the fields of sociology global urbanisation migration and ethnicity as well as being relevant to politicians policy makers urban designers and architects involved in cultural diversity public space and street based economies

Unmasking the Masculine Alan R. Petersen, Professor Alan Petersen, PH., 1998-07-08 Postmodernism and poststructuralism have undermined the assumptions upon which established identities have been constructed such as the concept of stable bodies and stable selves Sex gender sexuality and race are no longer viewed as merely descriptive aspects of experience but also as constructions of identity Drawing on current debates in postmodern feminism feminist philosophy of science anti racist postcolonial studies and queer theory this book considers the way in which discourse fabricates the ideal male body sexual identity and sexual politics Alan Petersen explores the possibilities of developing new models of identity not so closely linked to the sex gender system and examines the prospects of creating a new or reconceptualized identity politics A Decisive

Decade Robert B McKersie,2013-08-05 The deeply personal story of a historic time in Chicago Robert B McKersie s A Decisive Decade follows the unfolding action of the Civil Rights Movement as it played out in the Windy City McKersie s participation as a white activist for black rights offers a unique firsthand viewpoint on the debates boycotts marches and negotiations that would forever change the face of race relations in Chicago and the United States at large Described within are McKersie s intimate observations on events as they developed during his participation in such historic occasions as the impassioned marches for open housing in Chicago the campaign to end school segregation under Chicago Schools Superintendent Benjamin Willis Operation Breadbasket s push to develop economic opportunities for black citizens and dialogs with corporations to provide more jobs for blacks in Chicago In addition McKersie provides up close and personal descriptions of the iconic Civil Rights leaders who spearheaded some of the most formative battles of Chicago s Civil Rights movement including Dr Martin Luther King Jr Reverend Jesse Jackson Timuel Black Jr and W Alvin Pitcher The author illumines the tensions experienced by two major institutions in responding to the demands of the civil rights movement the university and the church Packed with historical detail and personal anecdotes of these history making years A Decisive Decade offers a never before seen perspective on one of our nation s most tumultuous eras African American Families

Angela J. Hattery,Earl Smith,2007-04-19 Bravo to the authors They have done an excellent job addressing the issues that are critical to community members policy makers and interventionists concerned with Black families in the context of our nation Michael C Lambert University of Missouri Colombia African American Families is a timely work The strength of this text lies in the depth of coverage clarity and the ability to combine secondary sources statistics and qualitative data to reveal the plight of African Americans in society Edward Opoku Dapaah Winston Salem State University African American Families is both engaging and challenging and is perhaps one of the most important works I have read in many years This book will most certainly move the discourse of the socio economic conditions of black families forward beyond the boundaries already set by other books in the market African American Families is an excellent book whose time has come and one that I would most definitely adopt Lateef O Badru University of Louisville African American Families provides a systematic sociological study of contemporary life for families of African descent living in the United States Analyzing both quantitative and qualitative data authors Angela J Hattery and Earl Smith identify the structural barriers that African Americans face in their attempts to raise their children and create loving healthy and raise the children of the next generation Key Features Uses the lens provided by the race class and gender paradigm Examples illustrate the ways in which multiple systems of oppression interact with patterns of self defeating behavior to create barriers that deny many African Americans access to the American dream

Addresses issues not fully or adequately addressed in previous books on Black families These issues include personal responsibility and disproportionately high rates of incarceration family violence and chronic illnesses like HIV AIDS Brings statistical data to life The authors weave personal stories based on interviews they've conducted into the usual data from scholarly literature and from U S Census Bureau reports Provides several illustrations from Hurricane Katrina A contemporary analysis of a recent disaster demonstrates many of the issues presented in the book such as housing segregation and predatory lending practices Offers extensive data tables in the appendices Assembled in easy to read tables students are given access to the latest national agencies data from agencies including the U S Census Bureau Centers for Disease Control and Bureau of Justice Statistics Intended Audience This is an ideal textbook for advanced undergraduate and graduate courses such as African American Families Sociology of the Family Contemporary Families and Race and Ethnicity in the departments of Human Development and Family Studies Sociology African American Studies and Black Studies
