A. Daly,1926 RETAIL & SERVICES MARKETING Dr. Mukul Burghate, India s retail sector is evolving at breakneck speed fuelled by a strong economy favourable demographics rising wealth levels and the rapidly changing lifestyles and consumer aspirations of an ever growing middle class Rarely a week goes by without major announcements by retailers and property developers committing to aggressive programmes of retail expansion and shopping mall development or announcements about the arrival of new market entrants or the forging of new joint ventures with foreign retailers all eager to participate in an increasingly dynamic sector India s cities are witnessing a paradigm shift from traditional forms of retailing into a modern organised sector a transformation that will no doubt accelerate over the coming decade The booming retail sector is offering significant new property opportunities but also many challenges for a new market that is going through structural change at an unprecedented rate Taking about service marketing we as consumers use services every day Turning on a light watching TV talking on the telephone riding a bus visiting the dentist mailing a letter getting a haircut refueling a car writing a cheque or sending clothes to the cleaners are all examples of service consumption at the individual level The institution at which you are studying is itself a complex service organization In addition to educational services today s college facilities usually include libraries and cafeterias counselling a bookstore placement offices copy services telecommunications and even a bank If you are enrolled at a residential university campus services are also likely to include dormitories health care indoor and outdoor athletic facilities a theatre and perhaps a post office There are particular problems and challenges in man aging services namely intangibility inseparability variability and perishability In particular services have to contend with uncertainties over customer involvement and what they expect It is in this context a study Material on introduction to the subject Retail we would like to specially acknowledge contents of website www.wikipedia.com and various authors whose writings formed the basis for this book We acknowledge our thanks to them At the end we would like to say that there is always a room for improvement in whatever we do We would appreciate any suggestions regarding this study material from the readers so that the contents can be made more interesting and meaningful Readers can email their queries and doubts to our authors on tmcnagpur@gmail.com We shall be glad to help you immediately Author Dr Mukul Burghate
