Rowland Wymer, 2019-01-04 This book gives detailed and original critical readings of all eleven of Derek Jarman's feature length films arguing that he occupies a major and influential place in European and world cinema rather than merely being a cult figure It places particular emphasis on the importance of Renaissance art and literature for Jarman and emphasises his interest in Jungian psychology Wymer shows how Jarman used his films to take his audience with him on an inner journey in search of the self whilst remaining fully aware of the dangers of such a journey Making substantial use of Jarman's unpublished papers as well as all his published works Wymer argues that the films are orientated towards a much wider audience than is often supposed They are addressed to anyone of whatever gender or sexuality who is prepared to go on a journey in search of him or her self and to become Jarman s accomplice in the dream world of the soul Art and Death Chris Townsend,2008-07-29 This highly sensitive and beautifully written book looks closely at the way contemporary Western artists negotiate death both as personal experience and in the wider community Townsend discusses but moves beyond the spectacle of death in work by artists such as Damien Hirst to see how mortality in particular the experience of other people s death brings us face to face with profound ethical and even political issues He looks at personal responses to death in the work of artists as varied as Francis Bacon Tracey Emin and Derek Jarman whose film Blue is discussed here in depth Exploring the last body of work by the the Kentucky based photographer Ralph Eugene Meatyard and Jewish American installation artist Shimon Attie s powerful memorial work for the community of Aberfan Townsend considers death in light of the injunction to love they neighbour Luminous presence Alexandra Parsons,2021-11-02 Luminous presence Derek Jarman s life writing is the first book to analyse the prolific writing of queer icon Derek Jarman Although he is well known for his avant garde filmmaking his garden and his AIDS activism he is also the author of over a dozen books many of which are autobiographical Much of Jarman s exploration of post war queer identity and imaginative response to HIV AIDS can be found in his books such as the lyrical AIDS diaries Modern Nature and Smiling in Slow Motion This book fully explores for the first time the remarkable range and depth of Jarman s writing Spanning his career Alexandra Parsons argues that Jarman s self reflexive response to the HIV AIDS crisis was critical in changing the cultural terms of queer representation from the 1980s onwards Luminous presence is of great interest to students scholars and readers of queer histories in literature art and film Coming Out to the Mainstream David Jones,JoAnne C. Juett,2010-08-11 Coming Out to the Mainstream is a collection of essays written from a range of perspectives from scholars to film producers who seek to contextualize and reframe New Queer Cinema from a 21st century perspective decades after Stonewall the emergence of the HIV AIDS crisis and the initial years of the gay marriage movement These essays situate themselves in the 21st century as an attempt to assess what appears to be a mainstreaming of New Queer Cinema a current wave of New Queer Cinema film that holds potential for influencing film viewers beyond the original limits of an independent film audience critics and the academy Specifically these essays examine whether and how the filmmaking styles and themes of New Queer Cinema have been mainstreamed rendered familiar as points of interest in popular culture of the 21st century challenging a queer phobic cultural climate and providing an incisive set of visual representations that can help inform continuing debates over queerness in public culture For instance what do we make of the burgeoning number of queer stories that are circulating not just in arthouses but in mainstream media How much of a transformation in our collective sensibilities does this trend represent and will it carry us toward a cultural landscape where identity is commonly understood and valued as multiple fluid and performative While the editors of this collection find there is significant evidence that New Queer Cinema has achieved success in forging greater mainstream acceptance of queer perspectives in cinema and everyday culture the essays we present offer a variety of voices a timely set of observations on queer images in film television and popular culture Derek Jarman's Visionary Arts Michael Charlesworth,2024-05-16 Derek Jarman's place in the history of film is assured by virtue of his vibrant defiant films that experiment with the very process of film making and create new forms His paintings their excitements and their profundity are less well known Michael Charlesworth sheds light on the varied ramifications of Jarman's artistic practice from his years at Prospect Cottage Dungeness and provides the first book length study of his interest in depth psychology He draws on Jarman's paintings especially his landscapes from the 1960s and 70s his multiple series such as black and broken glass GBH Queer and Evil Queen and his last Ecstatic Landscapes 1991 3 He also showcases Jarman's excellence as a writer with respect to his memoir Kicking the Pricks In a novel approach to Jarman's cinema selecting films such as Journey to Avebury 1973 Caravaggio 1986 The Garden 1990 and Blue 1993 Charlesworth emphasizes themes and artistry rather than narrative Exploring the ways in which Jungian and post Jungian psychology were absorbed into Jarman's varied works Derek Jarman's Visionary Arts provides a fresh perspective on his painting film and writing It celebrates him as one of the major British artists of the late 20th century engaging with current debates about queer sexualities

Just Disappears Diarmuid Hester, 2024-02-06 An exploration of artistic freedom survival and the hidden places of the imagination including James Baldwin in Provence Josephine Baker in Paris Kevin Killian in San Francisco and E M Forster in Cambridge among other groundbreaking queer artists of the twentieth century Nothing Ever Just Disappears is radical new history of seven queer lives and the places that shaped these groundbreaking artists At the turn of the century in the shade of Cambridge s cloisters a young E M Forster conceals his passion for other men even as he daydreams about the sun warmed bodies of ancient Greece Under the dazzling lights of interwar Paris Josephine Baker dances her way to fame and fortune and discovers sexual freedom backstage at the Folies Berg re And on Jersey Island in the darkest days of Nazi occupation the transgressive surrealist Claude Cahun mounts an extraordinary resistance to save the island she loves scattering hundreds of dissident artworks along its streets and shorelines Nothing Ever Just Disappears brings to life the stories of seven remarkable figures and illuminates the connections between where they lived who they loved and the art they created It shows that a queer sense of place is central to the history of the twentieth century and powerfully evokes how much is lost when queer spaces are forgotten From the suffragettes in London and James Baldwin s home in Provence to Kevin Killian s San Francisco and Derek Jarman s cottage in Kent this is both a thrilling new literary history and a celebration of freedom survival and the hidden places of the imagination

Another Kind of Normal Graham Ward, 2022-01-13 Every age needs to examine and propose its ways of living ethically Another Kind of Normal Ethical Life II constructs a mode of such living according to the Christian tradition based upon an interpretation of Christ's coming and the relationship of that incarnation to God as the Creator of all things In the second of four volumes Graham Ward explores an Augustinian vision of consonance between divine rhythm and the rhythmic orders of creation On the basis of what Augustine calls the interval it proposes Christ is encountered as riddle scandal and paradox It provides an account of creation as a Trinitarian event that calls for a rethinking of what are the key teachings in Christianity with respect to an understanding of creation as a divine benediction and a theatre for transformation and healing Ward argues through Scriptural exegesis for the omnidirectionality of time as graced rejecting a conception of linear temporality and theologies indebted to that conception Throughout participation in God through our hiddenness in Christ develops an account of the complex relationship between divine and human creativity appealing to music painting poetry drama film architecture and novels

The Ascent of Affect Ruth Leys, 2017-11-10 In recent years emotions have become a major vibrant topic of research not merely in the biological and psychological sciences but throughout a wide swath of the humanities and social sciences as well Yet surprisingly there is still no consensus on their basic nature or workings Ruth Leys's brilliant much anticipated history therefore is a story of controversy and disagreement The Ascent of Affect focuses on the post World War II period when interest in emotions as an object of study began to revive Leys analyzes the ongoing debate over how to understand emotions paying particular attention to the continual conflict between camps that argue for the intentionality or meaning of emotions but have trouble explaining their presence in non human animals and those that argue for the universality of emotions but struggle when the question turns to meaning Addressing the work of key figures from across the spectrum considering the potentially misleading appeal of neuroscience for those working in the humanities and bringing her story fully up to date by taking in the latest debates Leys presents here the most thorough analysis available of how we have tried to think about how we feel
