Studies On The Internal Diaspora Of The Byzantine Empire:

Studies on the Internal Diaspora of the Byzantine Empire Hélène Ahrweiler, Angeliki E. Laiou, 1998 The successful coexistence of different ethnic linguistic and religious groups within the same political boundaries depends in part on the resolution of the tension between uniformity and separateness This volume reviews sources of tension and their resolution in a number of cases that may be considered paradigmatic and which include nomads and Muslims the Serbs the Armenians and the population of Byzantine Italy The mechanisms of integration or acculturation and their various degrees of success are investigated as are the responses of different groups in an effort to present some of the complexities of this society rich in its diversity and impressive in its unicity Armenia and Byzantium without Borders ,2023-08-14 Byzantium is more and more recognized as a vibrant culture in dialogue with neighbouring regions political entities and peoples Where better to look for this kind of dynamism than in the interactions between the Byzantines and the Armenians Warfare and diplomacy are only one part of that story The more enduring part consists of contact and mutual influence brokered by individuals who were conversant in both cultures and languages The articles in this volume feature fresh work by younger and established scholars that illustrate the varieties of interaction in the fields of literature material culture and religion Contributors are Gert Boersema Emilio Bonfiglio Bernard Coulie Karen Hamada Robin Meyer Johannes Preiser Kapeller Claudia Rapp Mark Roosien Werner Seibt Emmanuel Van Elverdinghe Theo Maarten van Lint Alexandra Kyriaki Wassiliou Seibt and David Zakarian Migration Histories of the Medieval Afroeurasian Transition Zone ,2020-05-06 The transition zone between Africa Asia and Europe was the most important intersection of human mobility in the medieval period The present volume for the first time systematically covers migration histories of the regions between the Mediterranean and Central Asia and between Eastern Europe and the Indian Ocean in the centuries from Late Antiquity up to the early modern era Within this framework specialists from Byzantine Islamic Medieval and African history provide detailed analyses of specific regions and groups of migrants both elites and non elites as well as voluntary and involuntary Thereby also current debates of migration studies are enriched with a new dimension of deep historical time Contributors are Alexander Beihammer Lutz Berger Florin Curta Charalampos Gasparis George Hatke Dirk Hoerder Johannes Koder Johannes Preiser Kapeller Lucian Reinfandt Youval Rotman Yannis Stouraitis Panayiotis Theodoropoulos and Myriam Wissa Studies on the History and Topography of Byzantine Constantinople Paul Magdalino, 2007 Constantinople originated in 330 A D as the last great urban foundation of the ancient world When it was sacked by the Fourth Crusade in 1204 it was the greatest city of the European Middle Ages The studies in the present volume examine aspects of this long and complex history as reflected in the topography monuments self image and political status of medieval Constantinople They include a revised English version of a monograph published in French ten years ago nine reprinted articles and two published here for the first time 2007 Lectures Ron Johnston, 2008-12-25 Volume 154 of the Proceedings of the British Academy contains 17 Lectures delivered at the British

Byzantium and the Crusades Jonathan Harris, 2003 The first great city the crusaders came to in 1089 was not Jerusalem but Constantinople the capital of the Byzantine empire Almost as much as Jerusalem itself Constantinople was the key to the foundation survival and ultimate eclipse of the crusading kingdom The Byzantines had developed an ideology over seven hundred years which placed Constantinople rather than Rome or Jerusalem at the centre of the world The attitudes of its rulers reflected this priority and led to tensions with the crusaders over military and diplomatic strategy At the same time the riches and sophistication of the great city made a lasting impression on the crusaders even though they found Byzantine society alien and remote In the end the lure of the city's wealth was irresistibly fatal to the claims of Christian unity In 1204 the Fourth Crusade under the Venetian doge Enrico Dandolo captured and sacked Constantinople signalling the effective end of almost a thousand years of Byzantine dominance in the east

Eastern Approaches to Byzantium Antony Eastmond, 2001 The eastern frontier of Byzantium and the interaction of the peoples that lived along it are the themes of this book With a focus on the ninth to thirteenth centuries and dealing with both art history and history the essays provide reconsiderations of Byzantine policy on its eastern borders new interpretations and new materials on Byzantine relations with the Georgians Armenians and Seljuqs as well as studies on the writing of history among these peoples Presenting research from Russia and Georgia as well as Europe and the USA the contributors stress the interaction and interdependence of all the peoples along this frontier zone and consider the different ways in which the political and cultural power of Byzantium was appropriated They provide important comparative evidence for the relationship between local and Byzantine cultures and open up new avenues for research into the history of eastern Anatolia and the Caucasus The volume arises from the thirty third Spring Symposium of Byzantine Studies held at the University of Warwick in March 1999
