Textos Y Pretextos Once Estudios Sobre La Mujer:

Textos y pre-textos, 1994 Engendering Wealth And Well-being Rae Lesser Blumberg, Cathy Rakowski, Irene Tinker, Michael Monteon, 2018-02-19 The new international division of labor and the imposition of structural adjustment on Third World countries has necessitated a reexamination of development policies and a reevaluation of the role of gender in their success or failure Although women often bear the heaviest burden under structural adjustment there is also considerable evidence of women being empowered through their responses to the challenges of economic restructuring Based on case study material from Eastern Europe the Islamic nations Africa China and Latin America this volume explores the significant contributions women make to the wealth and well being of their families and nations The contributors argue persuasively that women may hold the key to sustainable development an increasingly critical issue at a time when policymakers are reconsidering the full costs and benefits of a growth fixated development model One of the first to embody the new gender and development paradigm this book reports on research at the frontiers of knowledge and theory about the gendered outcomes of economic transformation restructuring and social change By incorporating voices from the South it makes a provocative addition to our understanding of the political economy of development and of the relationship between world ecology and the world economy Researching Women In Latin America And The Caribbean Edna Acosta-belen, Christine E. Bose, 2019-06-04 This volume represents more than just a collection of chapters and bibliographic sources For us it provides another example of collective solidarity hard work and a relentless commitment to contribute to the process of advancing and transforming knowledge about women s condition It attempts to update and assess how scholarship on women has impacted different disciplines and fields and examines the multivariate conditions and responses to immediate and long term realities generated by women from different Latin American and Caribbean countries The editors hope that this publication modest as it may be will be a useful tool to other researchers educators and students in their efforts at pursuing and expanding the knowledge and visions that will make our different societies more just and liberating for all their citizens Mujeres del campo mexicano, 1850-1990 Heather Fowler-Salamini, 2003 Women of the Mexican Countryside, 1850-1990 Heather Fowler-Salamini, Mary Kay Vaughan, 2022-03-08 Too often in the history of Mexico women have been portrayed as marginal figures rather than legitimate participants in social processes As the twentieth century draws to a close Mexican women of the countryside can be seen as true historical actors mothers and heads of households factory and field workers community activists artisans and merchants In this new book thirteen contributions by historians anthropologists and sociologists from Mexico as well as the United States elucidate the roles of women and changing gender relations in Mexico as rural families negotiated the transition from an agrarian to an industrial society Drawing on Mexican community studies gender studies and rural studies these essays overturn the stereotypes of Mexican peasant women by exploring the complexity of their lives and roles and examining how these have changed over time The book emphasizes the active roles of women in the periods of civil war 1854-76 and the commercialization of agriculture 1880-1910 It highlights their vigorous responses to the violence of revolution their increased mobility and their interaction with state reforms in the period from 1910 to 1940 The final essays focus on changing gender relations in the countryside under the impact of rapid urbanization and industrialization since 1940 Because histories of Latin American women have heretofore neglected rural areas this volume will serve as a touchstone for all who would better understand women's lives in a region of increasing international economic importance Women of the Mexican Countryside demonstrates that contrary to the peasant stereotype these women have accepted complex roles to meet constantly changing situations

Trabajo doméstico Julia del Carmen Chávez Carapia,2025-03-20 En el sistema capitalista poca importancia se ha dado al papel de las mujeres en el proceso de la reproducción social con su tarea fundamental el trabajo doméstico Tiene mayor reconocimiento el papel de la reproducción biológica lo cual es solo una parte del quehacer de las mujeres puesto que la reproducción social es una función mucho más amplia En el presente trabajo se desarrolla la perspectiva de la reproducción social objetivizada en el trabajo doméstico no remunerado además de analizar el trabajo doméstico remunerado como una actividad laboral con características sui generis Este cuaderno se integra por una primera parte denominada El Problema en la cual se problematiza la situación del Trabajo Doméstico. Una segunda parte comprende los resultados de dos investigaciones realizadas en el Centro de Estudios de la Mujer. La investigación denominada El Trabajo Doméstico: una dimensión de la reproducción social de la fuerza de trabajo analiza el papel que juegan las mujeres en el trabajo doméstico como un elemento de reproducción social y su valorización en el mercado. Indica el costo del trabajo doméstico si los servicios que este proporciona se tuviesen que adquirir a precios de mercado. Asimismo presenta un modelo de trabajo doméstico que responde a la organización de funciones y tareas en las cuales se contemplan las tareas cotidianas de consumo diario, las tareas de consumo medio y las tareas de consumo largo. Este modelo se aplicó a varias mujeres para observar el tiempo dedicado al desempeño del trabajo doméstico del ama de casa. La investigación Condiciones de trabajo de las empleadas domésticas aborda un análisis descriptivo de las condiciones en que laboran las empleadas domésticas llamadas de planta y de entrada por salida para después hacer un comparativo de dichas condiciones en ambos grupos y conformar las características de esta actividad de trabajo. La tercera parte corresponde a un marco conceptual que comprende diferentes conceptos sobre el Trabajo Doméstico con la finalidad de que los lectores tengan una información amplia del problema de estudio. La cuarta parte, Los datos y las cifras, proporciona información directa y actualizada sobre el trabajo doméstico tanto remunerado como no remunerado. La información referente a Instituciones y organizaciones sociales permite tener una información general sobre algunas de las organizaciones que trabajan con las empleadas domésticas y los servicios que proporcionan. Las sugerencias bibliográficas permiten al lector ampliar su acervo respecto al problema de estudio. Por último, la parte denominada A manera de Conclusión presenta algunas conclusiones y nuevas interrogantes relacionadas con el problema de estudio. De esta manera se pretende que el lector acceda en forma didáctica y con rigor metodológico al estudio de problemas de actualidad proporcionándole información actualizada sobre el tema del cual se ocupa. Cada uno de los números específicos de los Cuadernos de Investigación como poner al alcance de una manera sencilla y clara la metodología para la investigación social la cual comprende el problema, los planteamientos de investigaciones recientes sobre el problema, un marco conceptual, un marco referencial proporcionado con los datos estadísticos, las cifras y la información actualizada, referencias sobre organizaciones e instituciones que trabajan y atienden el problema. Una bibliografía amplia y una conclusión que permite interrelacionar nuevos problemas derivados del estudio. Es importante mencionar que este Cuaderno de Investigación es resultado y parte del proyecto PAPIE EN307804 el cual brindó el apoyo económico para su realización.

El color de las sombras José Manuel Valenzuela Arce, 1997. Discute la historia de los mexicano-americanos en los Estados Unidos y sus luchas de la identidad étnica y contra el racismo.

Women and Power Janet G. Townsend, 1999. This text sets out to throw light on empowerment by showing how women can and do take power into and over their own lives. It demonstrates that it is often poor women in poor countries who are celebrating new powers and changing their own lives.

Mercados de trabajo rurales en México Antonieta Barrón, 1997. Contains eight case studies on issues concerning rural employment, rural workers and rural women.
