Textual Commentary On The Armenian Version Of Iv E:

Theologies in Conflict in 4 Ezra Karina Hogan, 2008 Recent scholarship on 4 Ezra has taken two divergent approaches the first reading the dialogues between Ezra and Uriel as a reflection of theological debates in the author's time and the second focusing on the psychological development of the protagonist Combining the two approaches this book offers a new interpretation of the dialogues as a literary representation of a debate between covenantal and eschatological wisdom two branches of Jewish wisdom that emerged in the late Second Temple period The inconclusive quality of the dialogues indicates the author's dissatisfaction with Uriel's attempt at a rational theodicy Ezra's subsequent transformation points to the symbolic visions as the locus of the author's apocalyptic solution to the intractable theological problems raised in the dialogues

Heavenly Space in Hebrews and Its Jewish and Christian Environment Stephen C. Wunrow, 2025-06-12

Stephen Wunrow addresses the pressing question of what the author of Hebrews meant by his descriptions of heaven arguing that the author intended his references to heavenly space to be interpreted as realistic descriptions of a real place Wunrow posits that language about heaven is neither metaphor nor a description of a place outside the creation by examining other early Jewish and Christian texts that narrate or describe humans ascending into heaven Given the nature and the function of heavenly space as described in these texts Wunrow suggests it is most probable that the authors of the texts intended their descriptions of heavenly space to be understood as realistic Wunrow thus explores 1 and 2 Enoch 4 Ezra 2 and 3 Baruch the Apocalypse of Abraham the Testament of Levi the Testament of Abraham the Ascension of Isaiah and Revelation investigating how other roughly contemporary authors described heavenly space and considering that the rhetorical aims of most of these authors fail unless their readers understand their descriptions of heavenly space in realistic ways Turning then to examine Hebrews Wunrow suggests that while the letter does contain unique features and rhetorical aims it also fits comfortably with other early Jewish and Christian texts that describe humans ascending into heaven in a realistic manner He concludes with reflections on how this conclusion helps to clarify other topics in Hebrews including atonement and eschatology

Losing the Temple and Recovering the Future Hindy Najman, 2014-04-21

This book explores the Jewish community's response to the destruction of the Second Temple in 70 CE The focus of attention is 4 Ezra a text that reboots the past by imaginatively recasting textual and interpretive traditions Instead of rebuilding the Temple as Ezra does in the books of Ezra and Nehemiah the Ezra portrayed in 4 Ezra argues with an angel about the mystery of God's plan and re-gives Israel the Torah Drawing on Walter Benjamin the imaginative project of 4 Ezra is analyzed in terms of a constellation composed of elements from pre-destruction traditions Ezra's struggle and his eventual recommitment to Torah are also understood as providing a model for emulation by ancient Jewish readers 4 Ezra is thus what Stanley Cavell calls a perfectionist work Its specific mission is to guide the formation of Jewish subjects capable of resuming covenantal life in the wake of a destruction that inflects but never erases revelation
